OUR

COMMUNITY

Our Goals

People in our Community

Commit to enriching the quality of life according to our community values through service, outreach and partnerships

Continue partnerships with schools to assure the highest quality of education for students

Explore experiences to serve seniors

People on our Team

Acquire and develop professional training for director, staff, and board to meet or exceed schedule requirements

The Place

Assure the Rossville Community Library is safe, comfortable, engaging and represents our values

Plan for ongoing maintenance of building

Design and build spaces to promote learning, literacy and transformation

Policy

Affirm the RCL Policy Manual is current, comprehensive and a reflection of our values.

The Director in consultation with the Board President will develop a schedule and procedure for reviewing and updating manual.

Programming

Engage the greater community by providing events and activities that promote values

Develop and enhance after-school programs

Develop programming for education and enjoyment for all ages

Collections

Build and maintain a collection of relevant, timely, and useful materials and continue to develop the historical and cultural record of our community in conjunction with our values

Build out literacy materials

Assure budget reflects changes in formats and bridges digital divide

Marketing

Tell our story, let the greater community know how the library serves and promotes value and values the people in our community.
