DHONE, Frank L.

1950

Frank L. Dhone, well known farmer, living about eight miles northeast of Troy, died in a corn field while he was shucking corn sometime Friday afternoon. The team continued to circle the field and about dark returned to the barn. When Mrs. Dhone saw the wagon and team without Mr. Dhone she realized something serious had happened. She called to her nearest neighbor, Charles Wiedmer, and they went to the field in search of Mr. Dhone. When they found him Mrs. Dhone was under the impression that he was still alive. Mr. Wiedmer, carried the body to the Dhone home, a distance of about a quarter of a mile. There a doctor was called and the physician upon arriving, pronounced him dead. It was the opinion of the doctor and County Coroner E. L. Karr, that the man had been dead about two and a half hours.

Mr. Dhone had lived in this community about eighteen years. He was a man well liked by all who knew him. His death was not only a great shock to his family, but to the community at large.

Frank LeRoy Dhone was born at Brooks, Iowa, December 21, 1889, and at the time of his death had reached the age of 61 years, 10 months and 10 days. On October 17, 1903, he was married to Pearlle Boose at Corning, Iowa. From this union eight children were born and all are living.

The eight children: Wm. Dhone,

Windsor, Mo.; Orlando Dhone, St. Joe, Mo.; Robert Dhone, Wichita Falls, Texas; Thelma Kentzler, St. Joe; Velda Row, Belleville, Illinois; Erma Waterhouse, Southwick, Mass.; Bernice Sharp, Los Angeles; Betty Tucker, St. Joe; Mr. Dhone's wife and brother, Ralph Dhone, Sweet Water, Mo., are left to mourn his passing.

Funeral services were held from the Karr Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. The Rev. Mansell Campbell, Baptist minister, conducted the service. Interment was in Mt. Olive Cemetery.
