Dedication

Wayne Myers

We, the seniors of 1974, wish to dedicate this year's edition of "The Eagle" to our two outstanding coaches. Their guidance and examples they have set for us will be remembered and used for years to come. Because of this we give them our thanks and dedicate our annual to them.

Arthur M. Hedges Jr.

To the Students and Graduates of Midway:

Someone once said, "A person who will not stand for something will fall for anything." Seek to live an intelligent life. Avoid gullibility, resist regimentation and reject pressures to follow the crowd.

In his book, "What Men Live By," by Dr. Richard Cabot, an outstanding professor of Harvard, he emphasized four points: WORK, PLAY, LOVE and WORSHIP. These are the things by which men SHOULD live. Too often men live instead, by the pressures of the day, that which is expedient.

Strive to live sensibly, to find a purpose in life. If you have a purpose, you will not be swayed by pressures of the crowd. Seek to discover what activities will make you worthy, wealthy, wise and healthy. IT'S UP TO YOU.

Sincerely,
Arthur M. Hedges Jr.

Imagine

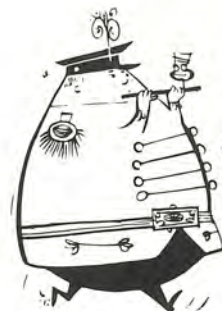

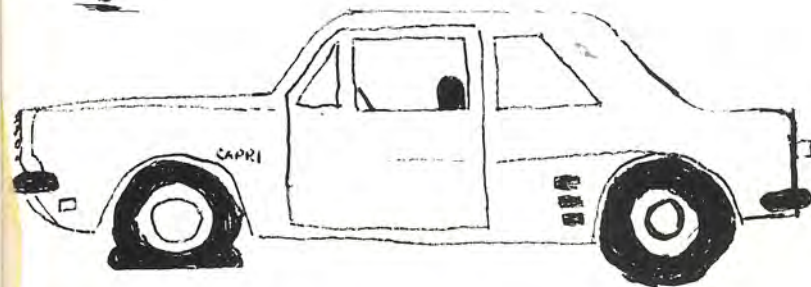

PROM

On Saturday evening, April 6, anno domini 1974, the seniors were treated to the occasion of their lives as the juniors hosted us at the Robidoux Hotel for the prom. The evening was begun with a scrumptious meal consisting of roasted chicken, potatoes and gravy, tossed salad, hot rolls, tea, and dessert, minus the gravy, hot in the rolls, and dessert, but we received an extra treat of a ruby red candied apple. Second, we were treated to a candlelight reading of the senior class prophecies by Jack Robison, who dazzled us with his showmanship and stage savvy. Finally, Charlie George thrilled us with his dry humor, debonair style, and unabashed efforts for honesty while reading the class will. We then adjourned for a short fifty minute break in the mezzanine at which time several members of the classes took leave of the building to partake in a better repast at McDonalds. After returning we were treated to foot stomping, hand clapping, good time music by Crocodile. Afterwards, everyone dispersed to the Skylark where Paper Moon was viewed with much pleasure although many movie-goers were complaining of sea sickness and bright lights. After the movie, the newly installed parking meters by the sides of the back roads reaped tremendous profits for the county. And many, well not really many, a few, well not exactly a few, actually Dr. and Mrs. Yoder ate breakfast alone at 4:40 in the morning.

Thanks for a fine, well not exactly a fine but a mighty purty evenin'.

Senior Class Prophecy

JOAN BAKER has founded a school in which teen-age girls are taught the finer arts of flirting. Because of Joan's ability to dispose of her boyfriends after several months, she is still unmarried. In her spare time, Joan travels around the country promoting the Anti-Fuzz hair shampoo which she developed.

DAVID MYERS For the seventh consecutive year, David Myers has received the Norm Johnson Award for his eccentricity and peculiar ways of his dispersed sense of humor. After accepting his prized award, he hopped in his chariot and rode away.

LARRY BOOS, famed as the Ronnie Howard look alike, is well on his way to "Happy Days" as Midway's silent type. His unusual ability to keep certain big-little boys quiet on the bus is very unique. Not to mention the agony he receives from such a big Spanish class fifth hour. Hey, try your unique ability on a certain freshman girl.

ROGER YODER After many years of doing what Roger does best, he now resides at the Sing Sing Prison where he spends his spare time managing the Sing Sing baseball team, the Candy Criminals. He is also head director of the Sing-A-Song chorus where he manages to miss practice at least eight times a week. In addition to that, he also gives guidance to those who want to acquire knowledge in the field of criminology.

STEVE WAGONER It has been twelve long years, but finally Steve has attained his goal which he set while still at good 'ole M.H.S. He is now head mechanic, a job he took from Mr. Spaight. Due to his scientific study over these twelve long years, he has finally discovered that the only thing wrong with his pick-up was that it was out of gas.

BEN McNETT is now the reconformed newly elected sheriff of Doniphan county. Ben credits his election to his campaign slogan, "If Dr. Jeckel could do it, then so can I."

ROBERT HARTMAN is now spending his time under the watchful eye of Sheriff McNett. Hartman has stated that he knows the cure to get Ben to his old self, but Ben won't let him go to the liquor store to get the cure.

SUE ELLEN MYERS, having finished her 21.6th unsuccessful play at Snobhill, is now returning home to her husband and her 21.6 children. She resides at 21.6 Jayhawk Drive. She has now taught her children the finer arts of pushing peanuts as taught to her by her favorite sister.

RON SCHOLZ Having now been going steady for 23 years and having quit the Wayne and Ron Comedy Hour, he has decided to marry. He will soon enter the Royal Family and raise his own family of sleepers and weepers. When asked why he didn't marry sooner he explained, "I was too tired!"

RUTH DAVIS, a former Midway student devoted to much studying and intellectual reading, went out into the world to start a chain of "Ruth's Reducing Salons." After becoming a slim 135 lbs., and getting involved in selling "Ayds" door to door, Ruth was inspired to write a book of her fascinating life experiences which include: "101 WAYS TO ESCAPE A FLAMING WRECKED FORD WITH ONLY A BRUISED STOMACH," "THE THE LONG-LOST ART OF FALLING INTO A POND OFF A BROKEN DOCK," and "YOU HAVEN'T LIVED UNTIL YOU'VE BLOWN BUBBLES ON J. D. EULER'S OFFICE."

DEBI JOHNSON, after a glorious graduation ceremony, pursued a movie and film making career where she has made her way to the top with the big ones. However, she decided to settle down and live on a small farm in her homestate of Kansas, where she is teaching her five kids, all taller than six foot, the more dexterous sport of hurdling.

ROBERT HALLING, commonly known as "Bob" or "Bubba," is now holding down the very difficult job of serving the President with his bookkeeping abilities. After a hard day's work at the records he needs something to relieve the tension, so he chews "Bubba-gum." Having enrolled and excelled in three degrees of bookkeeping, he seemed the only candidate for the job. Sic 'em Bub!

MICHAEL PETERS, now 27, owns a 3,000 acre ranch west of Moray. Being fond of hunting, he's stocked his paradise with raccoons and various other kinds of "wild" game. So when you happen to drive by and see this big orange sign, don't waste your time by driving up closer to read it, it only says, "Gone Hunting."

ZANE WINCHESTER, still the debonair train stopper of M.H.S., is still running the streets of Denton at noon hour putting his arm around all the women popping the subtle question, "Do you have a piece of gum?"

SHARON KIRTLEY has returned to the hills of Missouri and her barefoot hillbilly ways. Her master chef and foot warmer, Rodney, has perfected a process to prepare hominy and grits a special way that Sharon finds enjoyable. Sharon has of now finally learned to look both ways before crossing the street, road, and railroad tracks.

ROBERT THARP After graduation, Robert started his famous spastic school for Lower Learning in the growing metropolis of Denton. He features two courses which are growing in popularity. They are THREE EASY WAYS TO HOTWIRE A CAR and THE DIFFERENT USES OF ALLIGATOR CLIPS.

CHARLES GEORGE After taking over the Budweiser Brewing Company by being the main stockholder and consumer, Charlie has moved the main office to Kansas City. When asked why he moved the office, he says because of personal reasons, rumor has it the reason is the women.

VICKIE ZEIT, now known as Mrs. John Turpin, is busy raising two 6' 4" red headed girls and one 4' 3" bounding red headed boy. Thanks to her two years of cheerleading, her ability to not balance herself doesn't help when she's standing on a chair trying to comb her daughter's beautiful red locks. Keep hoping, Vick, you're still growing!

JEFFREY "BUGSY" FUHRMAN, also known more commonly as "weinie," is now still attempting the role of "Superman." His pastime is running in and out of the social science room and the commerce room keeping the Typing II girls alert and on their feet, stopping every once in a while to check out the commotion in the hall.

LARRY TURPIN, known as "Vern," is Midway's own special bookworm. He has no abilities that Midway is aware of, but he keeps trying to prepare himself for any new bright abilities that could happen his way. After ten years of searching his scattered brain, he still is unsure of what he wants to do.

MIRIAM ELDER has perfected her basketball ability so well that she is playing on the nation's No. 1 team, the Philadelphia Eagles. Miriam attributed her success to her coach, and very personal buddy, Kathy Olson. Miriam retired early when she was disabled doing a half time routine that required her to do the splits. She now plans to settle down with her husband and raise many, many basketball players. With his height, ability and co-ordination, where can she go wrong?

DAVE WINCHESTER is now the editor of the K. U. underground newspaper. He has become well known for his beer breaks and all-night parties. His one and only chaperone is only two months older and is known to be wild at times. In his spare time he is transformed into "Cadet Lawman," fighter of evil. But as to date, he has been unable to apprehend a former classmate, "Ripoff Roger."

KIM LAVERENTZ is now the Texas T-Club President. She has written her own constitution which includes the wearing of gaudy jewelry and striped socks. On campus she is known for her full-sized poster of a guy named "Snatch." She still has her problem of not understanding jokes and in her spare time, she's making frequent trips to K. U.

WAYNE PRENTICE OLSON, otherwise known as Ollie, Swede, Big B, or any other name that comes to mind, is now operating a chain of A & P stores in which the motto "WEO" applies. In his spare time, he also manages an orphanage in which he takes in little brothers and sisters. Nice family ya got there, son!

PROFESSOR LARRY ELLIOTT RUSH, with a Ph.D. in Affection, is now in the process of writing his fifth novel entitled, "HOW TO CRAWL DOWN THE HALL WITHOUT GETTING CAUGHT," but this will probably not be as popular as his last one entitled, "THE REWARDS OF A SLAP."

WAYNE RUHNKE, THE FUNKY MONKEY, now lives at Swope Park. When asked what he does all day, he replies "Just hangin' around." He is frequently visited by his good friends, Sheriff McNett and his convict friend Robert Hartman. His friends come to play pitch and for a little sparring practice.

Last Wills

I, STEVE WAGONER, being of weak mind and strong body, do hereby will to one Casey Lee Walsh my fantastic football ability, (Lord knows he needs it), and my ability to get out of class to bug John in shop.

I also will to one Ronald Schoenfelder at least 6" and not more than 18" of my height for basketball.

Being of great imagination that my body is terrific and my fantastic brain is superb, I, DEBI JOHNSON do hereby will to Sue Fuhrman the talent of baby-sitting with not-so-sober females, without getting a little intoxicated myself, also the ability to stay out all hours of the night AND MORNING without having the higher 'authorities' discovering the truth of the matter, and the number one pest which was willed to me last year that I never used.

I, BEN McNETT, senior of '74, will to Jim Hutchinson, my ability to get along with all the teachers at M.H.S. and I also will to Jim, my "Ole Stogies" that he liked so much while I enjoyed them.

I also will to Jack Dillman, my courage to make an attempt to jump Wolf River on two wheels and my ability to grow long hair without having to go to Virginia to do it.

I, ROBERT PAUL THARP, in the presence of all the heirs to my tremendous fortune, do hereby will to Jim Hutchinson my ability to laugh at anything even if it isn't funny, to Jack Robison, my long curly hair, and to all the junior class, except a certain one, a case of my Potent and Effective BS spray.

I, RUTH ANN DAVIS, being of way too much body and way too little mind will to all the junior girls part of my body, since there is plenty to go around. Also I will to Terry Lynn Rainwater my ability to own 2 cars my senior year.

I, LARRY RUSH, will to Barbara Miller, my refined art of crawling from the math room to the lunch room without laughing or getting caught, and also my ability to stay calm, cool, and collected while escorting three sauced members of the opposite sex home.

I, ELDON WAYNE RUHNKE, will to Casey Walsh my ability to play Five Point Pitch without going set all the time. I also will him my ability to go through my senior year without working very hard in any of my classes.

I, CHARLES LYNN GEORGE, being the short but great person I am, will to Denise Gronniger my two most prized possessions, (1) my smile and (2) something everyone has been admiring for years, my dimples.

I also will to Casey Walsh, my ability to make friends (both male and female) wherever he goes and to get along with these people. Most of all I will him the ability to grow a BEARD.

I, DAVID WINCHESTER, having a normal sized neck and exceptional abilities which I use to cut classes and school, will all of my future neck rashes to Casey Walsh's neck. I, also don't will you my feeble knees, which caused me to miss football my senior year. Last, but certainly not least, I will you my hotrod Duster that does a pretty good quarter mile and goes vroom-vroom.

I, KIM LAVERENTZ, do hereby bequeath my last will and testament to Susan Marie Fuhrman, my abilities to commit #3 of the Code of Behavior without being issued an eighth hour, or "asked" to the office, also my adventurous spirit and findings which have made my senior year very unique (ha! ha!) and my talent to produce the biggest "bugbite" in M.H.S.'s history. Last but not least, when the later part of the evening comes TONIGHT to not to be scared away by stray cars on stray roads!

I, ROGER (ALIAS ROSCOE) YODER, being of the only mind of its kind and what I certainly hope is the only body of its kind, and also being the gentleman and scholar that I am, feel it is my privilege, duty, honor and obligation to leave behind me to the following people these most treasured possessions:

To Mary Lynn Halling, I leave the ability to get along with her loving brother David, five pounds of fat, the posterior lobe of my pituitary gland, and the roll of blue toilet paper in my locker.

To Ronald Schoenfelder, that little brat, I leave my position as Back Room Administrator, my 2nd hour membership and card, one lock of straight hair, my office of Chief Class-cutter and Hallroamer, and 10 pounds of the finest natural bovine garden fertilizer money can buy, to feed to the appropriate people.

I, SUE MYERS, being short of mind and tall of body, do hereby will to Brenda Barrant my study habits so that the rest of the juniors will have a chance to graduate. I also leave my lucky number (21.6) to Barbara Miller and Mr. Leatherman to cherish it as much as I did. Last, if Sharon will give Casey Walsh her wheelchair, I'll give him the broken leg.

I, ROBERT LEE HARTMAN, being absolutely great and stupendous do hereby will to James Hutchinson my outstanding ability to stay out of trouble, a case of strawberry hill and the remains of my Cougar to do with as he pleases, providing he changes his sinful ways.

I, LAWRENCE BOOS, do hereby will to Jack Robison my ability to ruin experiments, a potato planter, so he won't have to dig holes by hand, and last but not least, I leave him my favorite pair of goat-roper boots.

I, ZANE WINCHESTER, being of one-track mind and derailed body, do herewith will to Ronald Schoenfelder my astronomical leaping ability, my charming personality, and my inexplicable ability to attract inebriated women.

I, JOAN BAKER, being of cool mind and hot body, do solemnly will to Mary Lynn Halling my trusty alarm clock so that she will know when to come home from dances. I also will her my ability to be asked to Prom in a more romantic situation, if she can get Jack into one!!!

Also, to Carol Helmstetter, I will my gregariousness and my knowledge of body language, hoping she has better results with it than I did. Also, I gladly leave her my ability to be mistaken for a boy at first glance.

I, BOB HALLING, do henceforth will to Jack Dillman, my ability to take four years to letter in football; and I also will him the ability to ride a motorcycle long distances in sub-freezing temperatures without turning into an icicle.

I, WAYNE OLSON, being of small body and less mind, will to my little brother Jack the following: My ability to stay at track practices, the dash on my '61 Plymouth, my locker downstairs in the "fairy" nice section of the lockerroom, 2 cases of macaroons, my middle name, the weeks supply of prunes willed to me last year which I couldn't find a use for, and nast but lot neast my ability to write like a tongue-tied fool and not look like one.

I, JEFF FUHRMAN, will to each of the junior boys a case of hot Colorado Kool-aid. To Casey Walsh, my ability to get along with people and get out of English class. To Jack Robison my car so he can come to track practice once.

I, DAVID MYERS, will to Jim Hutchinson, my ability to answer all Royal questions which are asked of me, the ability to stop strangers in cars who I thought were someone I knew, and one bright orange Allis-Chalmers cap. Also, I hope Jim will continue to pass on the knowledge of the Norm Johnson Awards.

I, MICHAEL DUANE PETERS, will to Casey Walsh my extremely extraordinary ability to go places without being caught, and to Jack Robison my ability to run long distances.

I, RONALD LEE SCHOLZ, ESQ., being of condemned mind and extraordinary body, will to Ron Schoenfelder my overwhelming common sense, my ability for all teachers to love me, my height and dunking ability in basketball, and my ability to stay out of class my senior year. I also will to the junior boys, my bag of peanuts. And last, but not least, I will to Rosemary Dodge, Alice Albers, and John Spaight, another boy who spends so much time in the kitchen and shop.

I, MIRIAM KAY ELDER, being of impressive mind and questionable body, do hereby will to Tina Gildersleeve my deep penetrating voice, so she may be heard above everyone else, to Mary Lynn Halling, my grace at doing the splits, pulling a muscle, and still smiling, to Sue Fuhrman, my ability to get injured before a game, which she does a good job herself anyway, and last but not least, to Pam Burke I will my body to do with what ever she wants, but, Pam, I am mainly giving it to you to talk to when you need someone to talk to.

I, LARRY TURPIN, due to the fact that everything I have is still in use and will continue to be, do hereby will Barbara Miller absolutely nothing and may I add that I hope she uses this gift that I have most generously bestowed upon her with the utmost respect which it deserves.

I, VICKIE ZEIT, bestow to the ever-fiery Pam Burke, my not-so-ever-fiery and rather dulling brown hair. Being of no morals, I also will her my ability to snare a steady homosapien of the opposite sex, which has seemed impossible for you in the past year. I conclude this will by saying, "Don't do anything I would do."

I, SHARON ANN KIRTLEY, being of crippled body and disintegrating mind do hereby will to Terry Rainwater my long straight hair and my inability to find provoking Psychology questions. My wheelchair goes to the first person with a broken leg. Okay Sue, you can start now.

We the SENIOR CLASS OF 1974 will to the junior class any and all the money that is left over after the sneak so they can have a complete prom.

We, the one and only unique class of '74 will to the following:

ALICE ALBERS - A 16 hour recording of "teelhee-hee" so she doesn't have to waste energy laughing.

ROSEMARY DODGE - A 250-lb. gooey bar so we can have another record-breaking year.

JOHN SPAIGHT - His very own instruction manual for the three things you can do in the dark.

MARION GEORGE - A case of Copenhagen, a trouble-free furnace, and a tape-recorder to record and publish every one of his 32,697 jokes.

DORIS MYERS - A coffeepot by her desk so she doesn't have to trot down to the kitchen ten times a day.

DOROTHY HALLING - A full day's work.

MRS. ELDER - Another energetic and cooperative mixed chorus, and 642 boxes of Kleenexes to weep with.

MISS ROBERTS - A date to prom (or anywhere), another modest Psychology class, and more witty senior play casts and well rehearsed plays.

MRS. RIETH - A box of Ayds, more hard-working senior accounting students, and an IBM computer to fill the knowledge void in the commerce room. We also will her a new joke book for the girls.

MRS. SCOTT - A harder working Advanced Home Ec. Class and another quiet and cooperative freshman class for P.E. and Home Ec.

MR. GIBSON - A brand new wand, a pair of Texas boots, his own pair of gold wings, and an air-compressor which he will need very badly in a few minutes for his tires.

MISS HALL - A lifetime membership to "Hoof 'N' Horn," a leash for her little "friend," and an 8 x 10 autographed color glossy picture of Arnold Ziffel.

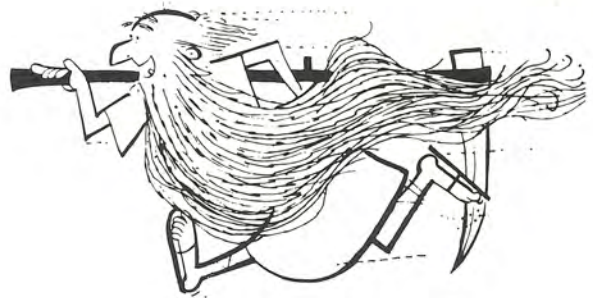

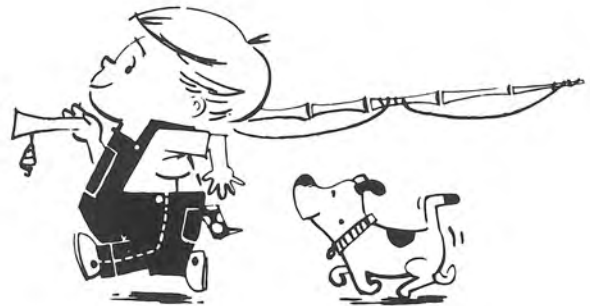

MR. RICHARDSON - (Eddie) 47,000 new decks of cards, the ability to play pinochle, a can of mustache wax, and a class that understands simulation games. We also will you another good year of charades.

MRS. PRY - Another heater so she'll have one she can sit on, the world's record for the most "Okays" and "all rights" in one hour.

COACH LEATHERMAN - A lifetime membership to the second hour Club, more students in Advanced Math, and lunch cards that can't be mutilated, torn, and/or lost.

COACH MYERS - More good looking cheerleaders to keep his mind where it shouldn't be, a police escort to Halstead, one year supply of pennies, and last but not least, another basketball team like this years "Cardiac Kids."

MR. HEDGES - A student teacher to take over all the eighth hour study halls, another class that has such a dedicated attitude, and a better occupation if this is what it is to be a superintendent!

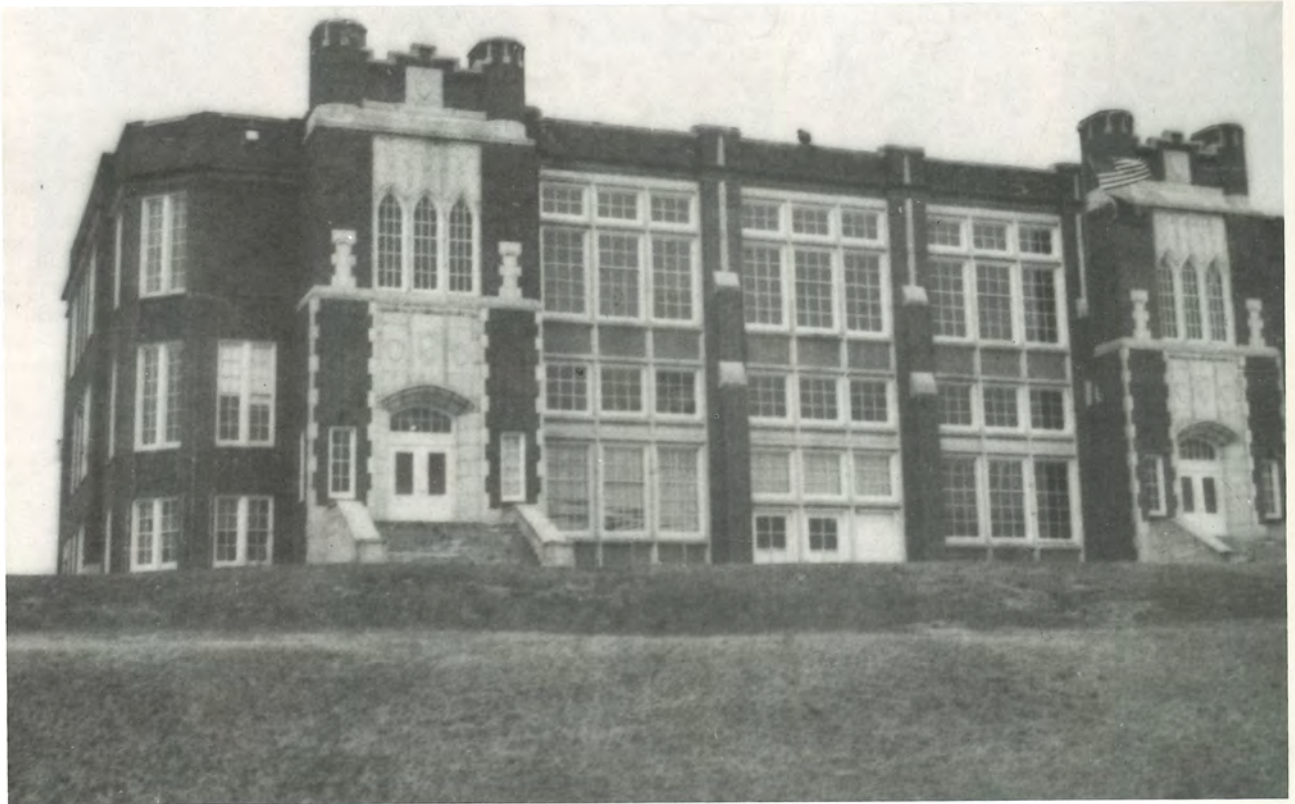

In body we leave you, but our spirit will not leave and in memory we always remember our high school days at M.H.S.
