Dedication

We, the seniors of 1975, dedicate this annual to Mrs. Greta Pry. She has helped and encouraged many students while she has been here at Midway High School. We are sure that the present students and the alumni all agree that she has been a very great influence to all. To show our appreciation, we have dedicated our annual to her.

Respectfully,
Seniors of 1975

Superintendent's Message

EAGLE REFLECTIONS

As you seek the pleasures and fortunes of life,
Striving to achieve illusive goals and gains,
Progressing toward an unknown future world,
Of space, of race, of hectic pace,

STOP!

Reflect on warm and friendly days,
When Eagles soared above a misty haze,
Circling over glorious green and flowing fields,
Watching silver, shimmering, shields
Turn gossamer green to beautiful black rich soil.

May these thoughts release you from the worldly toil,
To bring back mem'ries that encircle and coil
Around you from the faint and distant past,
Created from a moment to last and last,
Of those happy days of '75
And you were glad to be alive.

Teachers, friends and parents dear
Have worked so hard to bring you here.
Reflecting now that you've arrived,
It sure was great to be alive,

in '75,

May sunshine warm your back and light your path for always and ever.

Class Prophecies

CASEY WALSH has now offered his services to basketball teams to bloody any team member's nose that he deems necessary. In between trips with the teams, he practices art and is often called a present day Michelangelo. He is instructed by his adopted father and former art teacher, Roger Guier. He was last seen painting the ceiling of the Midway gym.

CAROL LEWMAN is still seen running around Denton looking for Mr. Right. She reports that she will not give up hope, because he has to be out there somewhere. In the meantime, she travels from Topeka to Denton in search for hospital patients. Good Luck, Carol.

After flopping in Las Vegas as a comedian, because his only audience was his old followers from Midway, JIM HUTCHINSON has now turned to the shotgun manufacturing business where he produces a shotgun which only fires in self-defense. He is frequently seen with his number one man Big Bad Russ and the machinegun twins at the Denton rockpile where they meet to plan Jim's new book, "101 Ways to Lose a Shotgun."

TERRY RAINWATER has moved up in the custodial world. She presently has a job where she really uses her head. Fulfilling her ambition to be a great actress, she has frequently been seen as a guest star on "Dark Shadows."

After losing her love to the armed forces, BARBARA MILLER has joined the Benedictine convent to become a nun, where she is refining the art of crawling on her knees down the hall in a record time of 21.6 seconds.

Lovable TINA GILDERSLEEVE, world renowned for her social work, is now famous for the special attention she gives to her clients. She now owns her own shop on 9th Street and Vine in Kansas City. When asked why she doesn't get a daytime job, she replied, "When would I sleep!"

BRENDA BARRAND, after seeing the light, is now a teacher's aide at K-State. She attained this position from her days as a teacher's aide at ol' MHS. In her spare time, Brenda is running a counseling service for misled youth who believe KU is better than K-State.

SUE FUHRMAN, after graduation from MHS, used her basketball ability to become the first woman player in the NBA. After her retirement, Sue is planning to come back to the Highland area because of her uncontrollable attraction toward the Highland guys.

It's been 15 years since graduation day and PAM BURKE is still not married to that bearded bully named Chuck. She's working on a new Ph shampoo that turns red hair blonde at night. It allows them to see if blondes have more fun. Also, Pam's nursing career is coming along very well. She was top in her class when it came to CERTAIN subjects. When asked how she had gained much knowledge prior to college, Pam's reply was that you can't study all the time. (It's amazing how extra-curricular activities can help later in life.) Pam and Chuck are still parking MUCH too close to home, and when the lights shine in their eyes, Pam has been heard screaming, "Oh no, it's Mom!"

JACK ROBISON, ex-Midway star has finally quit professional track. Being voted "Man with the least leg hair," by Nair Products and "Body Beautiful" by Charles Atlas, Jack is now just bummin' around the country as a free-lance model and centerfold artist for PLAYGIRL, FOXY LADY, and COSMOPOLITAN.

RON SCHOENFDLDER, that cute and debonair little mole who ran around Midway, has finally reached his goal. He has developed a new hair-care product, "Frizz Off." Now, being as bald as an egg, he has established a new pole vaulting record. He vaulted over the moon and will receive his honors as soon as he returns from orbit.

MARY LYNN HALLING is now Head Coach, cheerleader, timer, string holder, booster, water girl, etc., for the Robison family track team. When her six sons and dear hairless hubby cross the finish line on top and are asked how they feel, their only reply is "OOBIE-DOOBIE!!!"

DENISE GRONNIGER has finally found Mr. Right and is still living in the boondocks. When she finds time off from raising her rabbit crop of 20,000, she teaches her kinky-haired children the fine art of rattlesnake hunting.

CAROL HELMSTETTER has finally stopped going to the dentist's office so her big beautiful teeth will shrink back to normal. She has become the nation's No. 1 model for "Teen" magazine. She also has outgrown her attraction for younger men and married her 65-year-old photographer.

Class Wills

I, BARBARA ANN MILLER, being of unusually shaped body and weird mind, do hereby state my final will and testament. To DEAN WINCHESTER, I will my ability to find the time to do the jobs which I volunteer for and another partner to help him eat carrots.

To MARY LOUISE MYERS, I will my position as the best senior on the girls' track team.

To TOM HALLING, I will my ability to eat a pear half in one bite without making too much of a mess.

And finally, I will to MR. LEATHERMAN, knee pads for fifth hour any my position as president of the "End of the Bench" club for next year's basketball season.

I, TERRY RAINWATER, a member of the great class of '75, known for my strange mind and deformed body, will to BARBIE MYERS, my ever-flourishing crop of split ends and fuzz - which I know she has wanted for a long time now. Also I will her my unexplainable ability to keep from getting hooked on one guy for more than three weeks.

And to my "brother", JIM WEINGART, I will the W-X-Y-Z of the COLLIER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA since he's memorized all the others. He may also have back the nickname "Brillo," which he gave me in the first place.

I, RON SCHOENFELDER, will to MARK ROUNDS my ability to always have a date to all occasions. Also the ability to stay out of trouble as little as possible.

I also will to BILL RUSH the ability to lose enough weight to weigh 140 pounds. Also the ability to keep away from Alber's mail box.

I, MARY LYNN HALLING, being of blank mind and blank body, gladly will to SHARI ELLEN DENTON my blank mind, my middle name, and some free lessons on how to shift a Rambler.

To MARY LOUISE MYERS, I will a roll of light blue toilet paper that was willed to me by Roscoe and also my squeaky voice that changes unpredictably and Jack's dad.

And finally to GINA ELDER, I give my starry, starry tights, and my pre-game warm-up position.

I, CAROL SUE LEWMAN, being of small, but super great body, will it to BARBARA WEINGART. Also I will my ability to date a guy of age to drive at night legally.

To RITA GRONNIGER, I will my ability to date every weekend and not just once a month.

To NANCY THARP, I will my driving ability so she may not run over curbs and trees with Ruth Ann's car.

And to JOHN DIEBOLT, I will my ability to plow fields as well as I can with his car.

To RICKEY and MICKEY KENTZLER, the first twins whom Dr. Corder ever delivered that lived (although there is still some doubt) I, JACK ROBISON, will to Rick a sense of humor, a co-ordinated wardrobe and to Mickey, my Mickey Mouse hat to match his Bozo shoes and an ice pack for his nose.

To RON "WRINKELS, RICKETTS, RICKLES, or whatever his name is, RICKLEFS, I will him a foot of my shortness, so he can walk through doorways right and with Schoenfelder's permission, his little sister.

I, TINA GILDERSLEEVE, Senior of '75, will to the one and only DIANE ZEIT more time consuming, undecided talks to keep her in condition for those yet to come.

To the slightly touched, REGINA PETERS, I will a year and a half for her to be with her secret boyfriend that only three people know about; him, her, and me.

I, SUSAN FUHRMAN, being of tall body and short mind, hereby state my will to the following people: To my fellow chemistry partner, ANITA LOUISE ROBERTS, I will my ability to survive the homicidal tendencies of Rick and Jim, and my ability to like short people.

To NANCY LOU THARP, I will my ability to drive to school, so she won't have to worry about being kicked off the bus and my ability to stay sober and still have fun on the weekends.

To MR. LEATHERMAN, alias "Mr. Pickle" I will a candy bar, of his choice, so it won't upset his regular routine during 5th hour.

And last and least, I will to DAVID ALBERS, my spot on the girls' state basketball team so he'll never have to play on a losing team again.

I, PAMELA JO BURKE, being of humungous body and evil mind, do hereby will to my sweet and innocent cousin, DIANE KAY ZEIT, my sweet and not so innocent mind so she may follow my footsteps in the "H" club. I also will her my ability to resist certain temptations at 3 A.M. at the state tournament.

To my little brother, DARRELL EDWARD, I will him my ability to keep my mouth shut in matters concerning the business of others. I also will him my ability to be satisfied with the vehicle of Dad's choice.

And last and most certainly least, I will to CAROL ANN "Shorts" WALSH, my long, silky hair so she can rid herself of her nickname "shorts." I also will to Carol a tranquilizer so she will be able to control herself on her "first date." I want to leave Carol a large "FIRST" poster to remind her of the many "firsts" she received this year, especially during the state tournament.

I, BRENDA BARRAND, do hereby will to RICHARD DEAN MILLER, unbreakable windows in the gym doors and his own personal chemistry aide to do all his experiments and clean up after them.

To DAVID WARREN ALBERS, I leave all my crimson and blue T-shirts, Jayhawk bumper stickers, etc., because I know he is very envious of them. I also will him the courage to look up on the morning of February 24 after his "team" suffered a resounding 38 point defeat.

And to MR. LEATHERMAN, I will free season tickets to all basketball games at K.U., so that he may personally witness any 91-53 Jayhawk victories in the future.

I, CASEY WALSH, being of no mind and lots of craziness, do will to MAURICE KLEPPE my ability to get into trouble and to consume more than three canisters of our favorite beverage before losing all sense of control.

I also leave to RANDY WINCHESTER my newly formed ability of keeping my mouth shut or full of alcohol.

Also to my dear darling little, well not so little, sister, CAROL ANN, the ability to leave and get home when she wants to and I wish her all the luck in the world in snagging a man.

I, JIM HUTCHINSON, being absolutely great, stupendous, marvelous, fantastic, fair, mediocre, average, poor, do hereby will to RANDY WINCHESTER lots of freebies from Denton and a 150 foot hose.

To MARK ROUNDS, a good car, which he and I surely do need, an engraved pool cue with the words "Poor Loser," and a year's subscription to PUFFY & STORMY magazine.

To MR. ROLLER, a Rip-Off Proof Socket Set, and a Vandal proof shop room.

To MR. GUIER, a $200,000 accident policy, a 15 watt light bulb in his heat lamp, and sponge rubber doors, so he won't get strange looking hickeys on his cheeks.

And last and least to BILL RUSH, for whom I have great admiration, (COUGH), I will my enthusiasm for sports, and my ability to be COOL, because I don't know anyone who needs it more than he does.

I, CAROL HELMSTETTER, being of gorgeous body and scattered brains, do hereby state my last will and testament. I will to RICHARD CHASE a one-way ticket to Wounded-Knee, permission to date a certain sophomore girl, and a ride home every night after school so he will not have to ride the bus.

I will to ARLENE FRANKLIN, one semester of shorthand, my luck in having dates and my short, curly hair.

I also will to CAROL ANN WALSH, my ability to look like a girl at first glance and to have your appendix removed just before Prom.

To TINA MINER, I will patience in the lunch line, curls for her hair, and my jewelry I made in Arts and Crafts.

I, DENISE GRONNIGER, will to my little baby brother, DENNIS GRONNIGER, some of my height so people won't keep asking me, "When is your brother gonna grow?"

I also will to my sweet cousin, RITA GRONNIGER, my ability to argue about basketball with a certain New York Knick fan.

CLASS WILLS FOR TEACHERS

- To MRS. RISLEY - More trips to Hays and more free time at fifth hour to spend in the lounge. Also the good fortune to have a different pair of shoes for every day in the year.
- To MR. ROLLER - A can opener to get out of his car, a waterbed for his van and a short three-hour work week. Also a lock for his tool box.
- To MR. GUIER - A sun lamp without a light bulb, two cheek guards to ward away evil bruises and a fantasy trip to New York City to become a freelance painter.
- To MR. MYERS - A full-time substitute to teach his classes, a larger office and a bigger desk. Also the ability to discipline naughty little boys who cause trouble.
- To MR. LEATHERMAN - More sleep on state trips, an aide for all his classes, a magnet to pick up foreign objects on his chair, and an automatic shade puller.
- To MR. FOSTER - A full-time teaching job, and some color for the tip of his mustache.
- To MRS. ELDER - More seniors in band and chorus, new sheet music, and a drummer to complete the Greg and Leo combo.
- To MRS. PRY - A class of seniors to work on the annual, more free time to keep the library in order, and a trouble-free English I class.
- To MR. RICHARDSON - More quarter classes for history, a family-sized car, and a book entitled "1001 Ways to Fold a Diaper." Also an objective in psychology.
- To MISS STEWART - A full-time girl to do the laundry, a new pair of tennis shoes so she can practice basketball, and a tall, handsome man to bum around with.
- To MISS ROBERTS - A receptionist to make her appointments and an assistant to help during the schedule changing period.
- To SARAH HEINEN - A new name plate for her desk, a second attack of appendicitis, and longer weekends.
- To DORIS MYERS - A longer lunch break, shorter hours, and a personalized coat rack.
- To JOHN SPAIGHT - An alarm clock so he can be on time for the Pep Club bus, a new set of tools to lose, and a new pair of shorts he can wear for the Senior-Faculty game. And a weather proof pathway from the shop to the kitchen.
- To MR. MILLER - Unbreakable windows, an electric broom, less time to visit with the cooks, and a blindfold so that what he sees won't get reported to the office.
- To ALICE AND ROSEMARY - A book entitled "400 Ways to Prepare Spam," two hair nets, and a larger garbage can.
- To MR. NIGUS - We leave 29 incoming troublesome seniors, unlike the lovable, dedicated seniors of '75, a box of ping-pong balls, a dunking booth for his back yard, and the opportunity to get his picture taken on the stage by the Strathmann Studios.

"The higher we climb, the broader the view."
