During the first pep rally of the year, seniors Joey Edie and Hunter Ido show off their dance moves for a dance off.

People

1. Austin Taylor shows off his Jostens senior gear.

2. Bubba Jackson, Gabe Powell, Camryn Bollinger, and Jacob Libel, freshmen, work concession stands during a volleyball game.

3. The Superheroes dodgeball team: Luke Blevins, Levi Watts, Cooper Leach, Austin Taylor, Mia Scott, and Aubree Robinson pose during the dodgeball tournament at the beginning of the year.

4. Gamefaces on, Brooklyn Rush and Mia Scott are ready to be tough for powder puff.

Seniors Cori Pottorf and Chelsea Cluck and junior Jaime Albers wear festive Christmas sweaters at the end of first semester.

Wearing camo for Hunter Idol, the student body forms Hunter's football number three to show their support for him during the recovery from his accident.

Pressured to hurry up, freshman Jack Pickman laughs as he tries to peel and eat an orange that has been passed via feet after the powder puff game activities.

Student Life

More than just a name & a face

1. Upon enlistment in the U.S. Army, Denny Anderson shakes the hand of his recruiter at the Kansas City military processing station. Anderson will go to basic training on May 23, 2017.

2. One of Gabe Dunn's many hobbies is caving, especially in Missouri caves. He is shown wearing the gear.

3. Among the talented students is Reed Boos, a third place finisher in tie down calf roping at junior high nationals in Des Moines during June 2015.

4. Several students went through injuries and surgeries throughout the year including Kenzie Blevins, ankle and hand; I'Quajanae Jackson, foot stress fracture; Wade Joyce, ICL; Mia Scott, foot; and Calli Caudle, foot stress fracture.

Among the students that enjoy hunting are 5. Cory Smith, 6. Devin Taylor, 7. Trevor Taylor, 8. Lexie Whetstone, and 9. Houston Idol.

Where Everybody is there for you. . .

Senior Hunter Idol was a mile away from home when he was in a vehicle accident Sunday, Sept. 20 around 8 p.m. According to traffic reports, his truck was totaled, but the cause of the accident is unknown. Idol was hospitalized for 11 days at Mosaic Hospital in St. Joseph, Mo., five of them in ICU. He then went to Madonna Rehab in Lincoln, Neb. for 23 days.

Immediately, students, family members, and friends came together to show. Hundreds of t-shirts and bracelets were purchased, but most of all, prayers and concern helped during this stressful time.

Starting Oct. 27 Hunter returned to Madonna Rehab for evaluations and then started day rehabilitations. He gradually came back to school a few days at a time.

By the end of his senior year, Hunter was able to play baseball, complete Senior Project, attend senior trip, and graduate with his classmates.

We love you, Hunter

What a year

The cross country team consisted of senior Casey Billups and freshman Gabe Powell. The team started out by going to Wamego on Sept. 12. Casey Billups struggled with a knee injury through most of the season and was unable to compete in most races. The runners overall competed good and kept improving throughout the season.

Coach's comment

"Every morning in Africa, a gazelle wakes up. It knows it must run faster than the fastest lion or it will be killed. Every morning a lion wakes up. It knows it must outrun the slowest gazelle or it will starve to death. It doesn't matter whether you are a lion or a gazelle: when the sun comes up, you'd better be running."

What a year

The cheer/dance season was filled with laughter, attitude, and memories in the making.

Kirsten Huss described the season: "It was a challenge to adjust to the new coach's methods, but we eventually were able to come together as a team. Our stories that we all told were also pretty great as well."

Hailey Fee enjoyed the season, and she said, "It was a great year having a new coach and having team members or someone help choreograph our dances."

Senior Chelsea Cluck agreed that the season was enjoyable: "Cheer and dance was a lot of fun. Our dances had some amazing choreography. I am going to miss all of the girls. They helped to make my last year as a cheerleader and dancer at D-West a great one."

The new coach this year was Karen Wilson.

Coach Pittam's thoughts

Favorite memory?

"Valley Heights game when our boys were trailing at half time and not playing the way they should. In the second half we came back and took a one point lead late in the game. We then made a great defensive stand on a fourth and short to win the game."

What did you expect from the boys this season?

"My expectations are always to play hard and not give up. Win or lose, you play till the end."

"Brothers with a purpose": What's the meaning? Who chose it?

"The seniors are responsible for the team theme. The football team is a family, so the players are like brothers with the same purpose."

Coach Rod Pittam

What a year

The Lady Mustangs started the season off with a bang, defeating state ranked Valley Heights.

The matches that followed were a bit of a roller coaster, with moments of great volleyball and tough moments, too.

It was definitely a season of learning: learning to play without one shoe, learning to set the serve over the net, learning that some players aren't meant to set the ball, and learning that no one takes a selfie like coach does.

No matter what the outcome of the season, we learn from the mistakes and we build on the positives for the future.

What a year

One of the goals for the team was to make it to the state tournament. The team was lead by a strong class of seniors. For a good part of the season, they were ranked first in the KCA polls. When sub-state rolled around the guys were disappointed with a loss to Centralia in the finals and there would be no trip to Dodge City.

On winter awards night coach David Johnson reminded the boys that there was no reason to hang their heads. He said, "These seniors walk out the door leaving a solid foundation (for the program)."

Johnson challenged the underclassmen to learn from the seniors' example and to continue the strong leadership and tradition.

What Everyone Wants to Know

Homecoming is a time where each student should look forward to having fun, having school spirit, and maybe stepping outside of their comfort zone and letting loose. Monday was Pajama Day, Tuesday was Too Cute Tuesday, Wednesday was Twin Day, Thursday was Animal Day and, finally, Friday was Blue and Orange Day.

What is your favorite part of homecoming?

"My favorite part was when Cooper, Austin and Justin modeled their makeovers at the parade."

Chelsea Cluck, 12

"My favorite part was the volleyball and dodgeball tournaments."

Carson Lackey, 11

5. Carson Lackey excitedly awaits hearing the results of the float competition, as does John Vonderschmidt, Houston Cluck, and Lexie Whetstone.

6. The sophomore float: "Flying to Victory."

These Things Matter

With the theme of "... to Victory," each class began assembling floats throughout the week. The freshmen "Rumble to Victory" with an army tank and water balloons caught the judges' attention and won first, followed by the juniors' "Stampede to Victory," seniors' "Cruise to Victory," and then the sophomores' "Fly to Victory."

During half time of the football game, the candidates arrived in front of the stands in blue pickup trucks and then Aubree Robinson and Justin Clark were crowned the queen and king. The dance was the next evening, on Saturday.

5. Playing Paul and Simone, producer and judge on We've Got Talent, Andy Hughes and Dylan Kitzman dance the salsa.

6. Gabe Powell and Carson Lackey, as two kids with a rough past, sing while on stage.

The musical production . . .

"Don't Stop Believin'" mixed the experience of older students with a few newcomers. The seventh through twelfth grade cast (plus Mr. Thornton's yorkie puppy) gave two performances, Nov. 20 and 21.

The conflict of the play centered around a youth center about to be closed by the city because it was not up to code. In their scramble to earn money, the troubled youth who visit the center come together as a singing group in hopes of winning a talent show.

With a little luck and help from a generous benefactor, the center is saved, and the youth find the self-worth they had been lacking.

In the Spotlight

What was it like being in the musical?

"Boring, but fun. Challenging yet easy. Stupid but hilarious."

I'Quajanae Jackson, 11

Was your part in the musical this year challenging?

"Yes, because I had to sing."

Chelsea Cluck, 12

Favorite Memory from the Musical?

4. Jacob Libel steadies his arm to balance and then catch a penny.

5. Brantley Cluck pitches during a game of mat ball for the Friday activities.

6. Much to the delight of Ellie Clark, Katie Peuker, Lane Spiker, Charlie Taylor, and Kenzie Blevins, John Vonderschmidt doesn't find an empty spot during musical chairs.

What Everyone Wants to Know

Winter Royalty got an added bonus this year with release of students from class for games on Friday afternoon.

Activities included Hungry Hippos, kickball and Minute-to-Win-It games. During the week were spirit days including Scrabble day, Decade day, Holiday day, Nerd day, and Blue and Orange day.

On Friday night during half time of the boys' game, Wade Joyce and Cory Smith were crowned King and Queen. The night concluded with a dance.

What did you most enjoy about Winter Royalty?

"Dancing with my boy."

Shayna Wilson, 10

"Our group hug after the crowning."

Wade Joyce, 12

"I don't really remember much because of the concussion I got during the game before the crowning."

Cory Smith, 12

After the king and queen were named, the candidates shared a group hug in a show of congratulations and friendship.

1. Cori Pottorf and Chelsea Cluck spell "Go" on Scrabble day.

2. Shayna Wilson, Mrs. Cluck, Ellie Clark, Tayiah Whetstine, and Ms. Crawford spell out "Sweet" for Scrabble day.

3. Sophomores Ashton Veach, Calli Caudle, and Ellie Clark show off their Decade day attire.

4. Cori Pottorf, I'Quajanae Jackson, Cory Smith, and Jaime Albers get festive for Holiday day.

Spring Play

1. Kirsten Huss plays the Devil's grandma as Gabe Powell plays the character of the Devil.

2. Jaime Albers gets the crowd participating in Hansel and Gretel.

3. Carson Lackey plays as the Devil, Kirsten Huss as Rapunzel, and Andy Hughes as the Warlock battle to capture Rapunzel.

4. Chelsea Cluck and Kirsten Huss play Snow White and one of the seven dwarfs.

5. Mother of Rapunzel (Chelsea Cluck) and Rapunzel (Kirsten Huss) look to the father to settle an argument between them.

6. Carson Lackey narrates a scene during which Andy Hughes performs multiple characters for a "Cinderella" scene, including the prince, both step-sisters, and Cinderella.

What Everyone Wants to Know

"Brothers Grimm Spectatulathon" was an entertaining trip through the "real story" behind the characters of many favorite fairy tales.

How did the seven dwarfs end up living together? How did Snow White really feel about cleaning the dwarfs' cottage? Did Cinderella actually have a fairy godmother? Why did Rapunzel's parents allow her to disappear?

These questions and more were answered in this drama acted by six students who played multiple parts on April 23 and 24.

"I think this is the first comedy I was in and I actually really enjoyed it," commented senior Andrew Hughes. "I usually don't like comedies in smaller cast plays because usually it's cheesy and cliché, but the comedy in this play was within the actual story rather than a few one-liners here and there. I loved everything about this play and couldn't have picked a better cast for it."

Favorite Scene

What Everyone Wants to Know

"Shine in the Night" was the theme of Prom 2K16 on April 9.

The festivities began with couples and class photos at the home of Tony and Lanna French in Highland. The traditional walk-in at the high school was next.

After couples walked and stopped for snapshots, at 5:30 they were bused to Elizabeth's in Atchison for dinner and dancing until 11 p.m. A buffet-style dinner of chicken breast, vegetables, and cheesecake was prepared by Elizabeth's.

The after-prom party was at the high school from 12 a.m. until 3 p.m., where entertainment included a mechanical bull, inflatables, and prizes.

What Everyone Wants to Know

Twenty seniors departed for Arlington, Texas at 5:30 a.m. on Friday, May 6. In two school vans and two rented Suburbans, they were ready for some fun and relaxation with sponsors principal Chris Lackey, Miranda Penny, Derek Shelton, and Kim Boos.

Kenzie Blevins gave a rundown on the trip: "My vehicle didn't sleep at all on the ride down because we were so excited! The rental house was amazing! On Friday night, we went to a trampoline park and despite a few injuries, it was a lot of fun!

On Saturday, we went to Six Flags and then we went out to eat that night.

On Sunday, we went to Speed Zone where we raced all different types of cars and there was also an arcade. After we left there, we went to Zero Gravity where a lot of us free fell from 16 stories high and rode a huge ferris wheel ride that went 70 mph!

On Monday, the group split up and half of us went to the mall and the other half went to the stockyards and we met back up for the Rangers and White Socks game where Beyonce was performing across the street! On Tuesday, we came home and this time, we slept!

Your thoughts?

What Everyone Wants to Know

May 14 was a day of celebration for the 23 graduates of 2016 as they received their diplomas and congratulations from friends and family.

Chelsea Cluck, valedictorian, encouraged her classmates to take risks as they create their future and strive for success. Salutatorian Cori Pottorf reflected on memories and fun times the classmates shared, including those most recently made on their senior trip to Texas.

Directing the ceremony was district superintendent Rex Bollinger, and the board members Brad Holzhey, Stephanie Peterson, Carla Johnson, and Grant Gladhart handed out diplomas.

Love,
 Your family

Aubree,
 We are proud of the beautiful person you have become inside and out. You should be proud of yourself for all you have already accomplished. Remember the possibilities in life are endless so always dream big.
 We Love You,
 Mom, Dad, Kaden and Ecken

Our hearts are full of love and respect for you. From the minute you were born, we have been blessed to call you our son and we have enjoyed watching you grow, succeed, and become an extraordinary person.

We owe many good memories and happy times to you--from watching you play basketball, farm the carpet, be a big brother, do clever impersonations, and work hard on the farm.

Austin

As you continue your life's journey, may your world be filled with loving relationships and success. You are capable of achieving great things, and we wish for you a life of happiness.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart."
 Jeremiah 29:11-13

We love you!
 Mom & Dad
 Devin, Jaiden,
 & Bo

We have loved watching you grow up--even when you drove our car out of the driveway and tore the mirror off! We loved watching you play summer jam, junior high, high school, and state basketball! We have so many great memories of you and you make us proud!

We love you,
 Granny & Papa Ted

Austin

You have brought us so much happiness and we are so proud of you. One of the neatest memories of being your grandparents is receiving new names, Me-Me and Pa-Pa. We have so many other memories through the years which went way too fast. You spent a good part of your summers here on the farm, and we thank you for letting us share in your life. We wish you success and happiness. Our Love and Prayers,
 Me-Me and Pa-Pa Taylor

Joey

People of character do the right thing even when no one else does, not because they think it will change the world, but because they refuse to be changed by the world.
~Michael Josephson

We are so proud of the young man you are today and look forward to the great man you will become!

We love you!!
Mom, Bruce, Ky and Brenn

From the day you were born and till today, you have given us reasons to hold our heads high with pride. We are excited to watch as you take the next step in life. Continue to work hard to reach your dreams. "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might." Ecclesiastes 9:30 We love you! Always & Forever, Mom & Dad

COOPER

Cooper,
We are so lucky to have a grandson like you. We are so proud of all your accomplishments. Continue to work hard to achieve your goals because we know that you can do whatever you put your mind to. Congratulations, Cooper! We love you very much!

I can't believe you are already graduating. I just want to tell you to always work hard, do your best and treat everyone with respect. You have been through some tough times in high school but you have pulled through it like a champ. We are very proud of you and the man you have grown into. We love you. Good luck Son.

Joey,
I can't believe that the baby that has been my best friend since he first opened his eyes has grown into the person you are today. I am beyond proud of you. You have always pushed yourself, striving for greatness with God in your heart, and you inspire me. You are my rock, my best friend, and most importantly, my brother. You've been my crying shoulder through the bad times, and the only one laughing with me through the good times. Thank you for always being there, thank you for being strong, thank you for being you. I can't wait to see what life has in store for you.
I love you, Jofus Jack.
Love, Ky

Congratulations, Cooper!
Now it is time for the next step of achieving your goals in life by starting and finishing a college education. We are so proud of you. Just remember God will lead you if you just keep your eyes up, never down.
We love you very much!
Love,

Kenzie —

The years have flown by and my adorable baby girl has grown up to be a beautiful young woman, both inside and out. We are so incredibly proud of you and all that you have accomplished and look forward to watching you as you enter this next phase of your life.

We wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence, along with the wisdom to choose your battles carefully. We wish you adventure, happiness and success on your journey and may you always stop to help someone along the way. Be open to new experiences, but take risks carefully. Always stay true to your heart, believe in yourself, make good choices and be proud of all of your accomplishments.

Embrace love, accept all that you are, forgive others and yourself, and remember... Laughter and Honesty will always make things easier.

May your light always shine bright so you never lose your way, may your dreams take you to the most special places your heart has ever known.

Always remember how much you are loved!!!

Lexie, What grandfather would not be proud of a grand-daughter such as you. You are amazing and unique! You make me beam with the values you live. Your actions of love for all you hold dear has become the character of your being. I love you not because you are my grand daughter but, because what you give that matches your physical beauty. Yes, you are amazing, unique and beautiful.
I love you! Pa Evans.

~Chelsea~

You have been such a joy since the day you were born. Yes, you've tried our patience a time or two, but we love you all the same! You have grown into a beautiful young lady, both inside and out, and we are beyond proud of you! We are so excited to see where this next phase in your life takes you. Gonna miss you like crazy when you head off for college... it's going to be so quiet around the house!! You were born to do great things! Never be afraid to take the road less traveled... life's a climb, but the view is great!!

Love you
so very much,
Mom & Pat

Chelsea,
Wow, the memories I have of you: From the moment I cut your umbilical cord and all the times as a toddler you let food drool out of your mouth on my carpet, fixing your hair for your first pageant to the happy tears when I found out you won Miss Kansas Teen last year. All the times I have laughed with you and even at you. I LOVE YOU and I miss you already, but I can't wait to see where your future takes you.
