LOWELL A. MARTIN

B.S. and M.S.
Indiana State

The annual staff is proud to dedicate the TROJAN '64 to our principal, Mr. Lowell A. Martin. Mr. Martin was always busy, but never too busy to give advice, to offer guidance, or to hear our problems. His friendliness has won many friends for him, not only among the student body and faculty, but also among the people of the community.

Homecoming

'63

Her Majesty, Phyllis Kanning and her escort, Warren Grable.

Attendant, Sherry Juhl and her escort, Edwin Meier.

Attendant, Carol Sharp and her escort, Bob Klaus.

Queen and Royalty watching the game.

The Royal Court and the first dance.

Our Queen's flower girls and crown bearers.

The activities of the Homecoming were not limited to dancing. These Trojans and Wildcats are enjoying each others company and the refreshments. The disappointment of having lost the game was offset by the dreamy mood which the lovely decorations and music created.

Halloween

The Troy Kiwanis Club chose Janie Judd as our lovely candidate for the annual Hiawatha Halloween Parade. Although another candidate was selected Queen, Troy was very proud of Miss Judd.

Stanley Ruhnke, a Trojan Senior, was Miss Judd's escort for the evening.

F.F.A. Barnwarmer

F. F. A. Sweet-heart Diana Scholz and royalty, Marcia Carlson and Neva Snodgrass having the first dance.

Greenhand Initiation

The initiation for the F. F. A. greenhands, or first year Vo. Ag. members, was to dress as girls for one day at school. This year there were eight greenhands joining F. F. A. In the evening they were fed well with raw eggs and given Pepsi with more raw eggs to wash it down.

The Stuck Pot

Alice Ann is only interested in finishing her experiment and doesn't want to go to the annual dance with Jason's Mens School. But when she finds out about the "Stuck Pot" at Jason, she decides that Worthington should have a $200 "Stuck Pot." The girls had to look as horrible as they could so they could win the stuck pot. Alice finds a secret weapon and all goes well until she meets Edward. Then science becomes a second thought.

The three leading scorers, Ray Clary, Larry Reder, and Roger Blake, led the Trojans through a fine season. Losing the first game spurred the team to greater efforts. With defensive men like Grable, Meier, and Mitchell, we took the next two games only to lose at Homecoming. The season was climaxed with a four game winning streak which gave us a record of six wins and two losses.
