SCHOOL SONG

On, Trojans, down the field,
Fight on for Troy High.
And may our school be victorious,
We'll never say die.
And with the glory and honor
Of Troy's Sons' great might,
We'll fight and win for our colors,
The Blue and White!
FIGHT! FIGHT!

POLICY-MAKING BODY GUIDES USD #429

The USD School Board is the main policy-making body of the school system. The School Board provides leadership for and direction to the schools. After the members set up the main policies, they leave most of the running of the school to the administration. With the cooperation of the superintendent, faculty, and community, the Board can be active.

The USD Board is headed by Mr. Norman Davies, President, and he is assisted by Mr. Raymond Gaul, Vice-President. They hold their meetings on the first Wednesday of each month.

N. Larzelere, Sec.

Mrs. Nell Larzelere, Secretary, records the business of each month's meeting.

At the monthly meetings, special problems of the school are discussed and if the school needs something, it is brought up by the administration and discussed and approved by the Board.

MR. GADDIS

MR. WILLIAM CROSLEY

Troy High School is proud to have Mr. William Crosley as Principal. Since this is his first year at Troy, Mr. Crosley has had the job of getting acquainted not only with the school and faculty but also with the Troy community. In addition to that, he is head coach, physical education and mechanical drawing instructor.

He and his wife, Madeline, (also a teacher) are the parents of two children, Debbie and Steve. Mr. Crosley earned his Master's degree at Emporia State College.

Mrs. Nell Larzelere has spent three years as part of the THS staff. She is very competent in her dual role as secretary-bookkeeper to THS and secretary to the USD No. 429 school board. Her efficiency keeps both areas running smoothly. Whether the task be large or small, Mrs. Larzelere always manages to finish it in just the way it is requested.

Mrs. Larzelere makes her home in Troy with her husband, Dick, and youngest daughter, Mindy. The Larzeleres are also the parents of Mrs. Jacqueline Chase and Mrs. Deborah Rush.

BUS DRIVERS

Six bus drivers transport the students of THS and TGS to and from school. Their job is to get the students to school in the morning and back to their homes at night. Considering that the busses are crowded, that very few bus routes are paved, and the job of driving a bus is not the easiest, we do commend our drivers.

M. WASSON, E. SALTZMAN, A. TRANT

This year, there are three cooks with the addition of Mrs. Alice Trant. Mrs. Harriet Howland fills in when she is needed. The cooks that returned this year are Mrs. Eva Saltzman and Mrs. Mildred Wasson. Not many people realize how much work it takes to be a cook at a school. Eight-thirty seems early for some of us to arrive, but for the cooks, it is late! Each school day for nine months, the cooks prepare a nutritious meal for the students, faculty, staff, and themselves.

DICK LARZELERE

MAINTENANCE CUSTODIAN

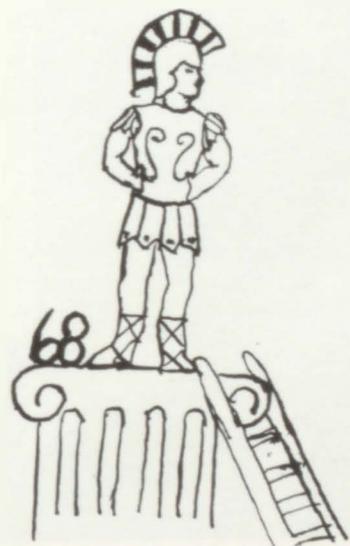

Mr. Dick Larzelere's job as maintenance engineer at Troy High consists of keeping the busses and other school equipment in good running condition. He is shown at left working on the mower.

SENIORS SPONSOR CARNIVAL AND SHOW

Ricky Drake, announcer

On the night of Jan. 27, 1968, the THS seniors sponsored a carnival and show.

The show started off the evening and a number of students took part in the take off on the "Ed Sullivan" show. A number of acts were performed and interspersed throughout the acts were commercials. Ricky Drake was the Master of Ceremonies.

Donald Clary and his famous dog (Reggie) act were there, as were the Smother's Sisters (Mother liked the boys best). Donna Rush and Lois Kirby portrayed this pair. Musical acts included Mrs. Miller's Sisters (Renee Hoffman, Sue Taylor, and Roselyn Drake) and The Hillbilly Band (Tom Bruns, Gary Masters, Kenny Reder, Cathy Grable and Barbara Thomas). Also on hand were Rick and his Mob (Rick Gronniger, Edna Lewis, Jim Wykert, and Doug Johnson). They left when the yell of "Cops" sounded throughout the auditorium.

Various companies advertising during the evening were Tootsie Rolls (Peggy Koehler, Connie Kline, Tom Bruns, and Roger Masters), Right Guard (Bev Engemann and David Penny), and Scope (Mr. Foster and Edna Lewis). A brief version of T. V. show, "Divorce Court", was portrayed (Renee Hoffman, Ted Smith, Doug Johnson, Roger Masters, Rodelyn Drake, and Marcia Wherstine).

After the show, the booths opened. Most of the organizations and classes sponsored at least one booth each. The booths represented money-making projects for the organizations. There was a fortune teller, a jail, a dart throw, a kissing booth, a fish pond, a spook house, a road race, a cake walk, a sweet shop, and a snack bar.

Following the carnival, the seniors sponsored a dance for junior high and high school students. A juke box provided the music.

TROJANS END LOSING STREAK BY DEFEATING HIGHLAND

The Troy Trojans football team got off to a much better start this year with a victorious win over the Highland Bluestreaks with a score of 19-6. This put an end to the twenty-seven game losing streak for the Trojans. The boys showed fine spirit on and off the playing field. It takes a lot to make a winning team, and the Trojans' efforts produced results. Teamwork and cooperation among players and coaches is important and proved rewarding.

COACHES BOOST SPIRIT OF TEAM AND STUDENT BODY

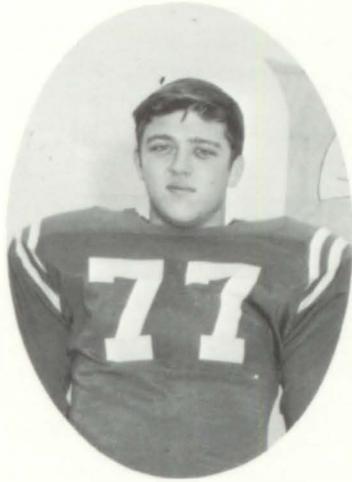

Troy High School spirit has been boosted greatly this year with the help of William Crosley, Kenneth Thomas, and Nicholas Dannevik, Troy's coaches. They have shown great enthusiasm and have encouraged the boys to work hard to win. Troy not only ended their twenty-seven game losing streak beating Highland, 19-6, but also finished the season with a 74-6 win over the Seneca team.

TROJANS BEGIN AND END SEASON WITH VICTORIES

The Trojan football squad began the 1967 season with a win over Highland. However, the next six games proved too much for the mighty Trojans. The last game was a tremendous comeback for the team as they pummeled Seneca Public 74 to 7 in the last game of the season.

TROJAN TEAMS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

The Trojans got off to a slow start at the beginning of the 1967 basketball season by losing to Kelly. As the season progressed, however, the Trojans made a strong comeback by defeating the Highland Bluestreaks and the Midway Eagles.

It required time for the players to get adjusted and learn to work together as a team. Hopes are high for next year as the returning lettermen will be back to lead the team.

Under the capable leadership of Coach Thomas and the assistant coach, Mr. Dannevik, the Trojan B-Team showed much progress this season. The spirit of the Trojan players and the enthusiasm of the student body help make a winning team. Mr. Crosley coaches the A team.

FRESHMEN UNDERGO DIFFICULT SEASON

The Freshmen had a difficult season this year finishing with a 3-7 record. They placed fifth in the District Tournament by defeating Elwood. Mr. Dannevik, a new addition to the THS faculty this year, was the Freshmen team's coach.

The Trojan A-Team won only two games this year, but that didn't lower their spirit. The boys worked hard and showed team spirit, which is needed to make a winning team. Mr. Crosley coached the A-Team.

RETURNING LETTERMEN

SPRING BRINGS TRACK TO THS

Along with spring, comes the beginning of the 1968 track season at THS. This year approximately twenty boys went out for track. Three of the twenty are returning lettermen. They are Tom Bruns, Carl Neeland and Marvin Gaither. Since there are so many boys out, each boy can spend time working for an event for which he feels qualified, rather than working on events in which he isn't qualified.

Track is the only sport at THS where each boy must work and practice on his own. In the other sports at our school, such as football and basketball, a team with team work is required.

The Freshman track team is looking forward to the beginning of the 1968 track season. All prospects, now point to it being a successful one.

Gary Barnthson

P.E. DEPARTMENT ADDS NEW AREA

There has been a new addition to the P. E. program at THS this year-- gymnastics. Here, Gary B. is working on the parallel bars. A few of the other Freshmen have worked in this section during P. E. hour. Gary has become fairly advanced in his ability to do many stunts on the tumbling mat and parallel bars. We look for Gary and some of the other boys to be quite active in this area next year.

T-CLUB OPEN TO LETTERMEN IN ALL SPORTS

The T-Club is made up of boys that have lettered in one or more sports. These boys are brought into the club each year by an annual initiation which is held in the spring. After the initiation, the whole group has a picnic. Other activities for the club include selling chances on cakes at home basketball games and the awards banquet held at the end of each year. At this banquet, the members are presented with the letters which they have earned during the past year.

HOMECOMING ATTENDANTS SHARE SPOTLIGHT WITH QUEEN

Friday the thirteenth was not an unlucky day for Mary Ellen Murphy because she became Troy's 1967 Homecoming Queen at halftime activities of the Troy-Corning football game on that night. The Trojans were defeated, 19-7, but nothing could dampen the spirit of the team or the crowd. The band and the Pep Club performed at halftime activities. The band, under the direction of Mr. Knudsen, formed a "C" (for Corning), a "T" (for Trojans), a sunflower, and with the help of the THS Pep Club, formed a crown in which Mary Ellen and her attendants were crowned and presented roses.

CHEERLEADERS, TEAM AND "CHATTY TROJAN" ADD SPIRIT TO ASSEMBLIES

Cheerleaders: Edna Lewis, Janie Gray, Bev Engemann, Debbie Clary, Mary Reeder

The pep assembly before each game gives the students an opportunity to express their support for the team. At one of the pep assemblies a surprise package arrived. The two co-captains for the game, Tom Cross and Mike Franken, are shown unwrapping the present and a few seconds later, "Chatty Trojan" made her first appearance. Throughout the year "Chatty Trojan" promoted enthusiasm by circulating among the crowd holding signs with clever sayings on them. She added much needed spirit to our school.

PEP CLUB SELECTS "AUTUMN LEAVES" AS THEME FOR 1967 HOMECOMING

The Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the Pep Club, was held in the school auditorium. Pictured is Queen Mary Ellen and her attendants leading off the first dance with their escorts. The disappointment of having lost the game was offset by the dreamy mood which the lovely decorations and music created. The theme was "Autumn Leaves" and the music was provided by the Safaris. It was a memorable evening for all.

FACULTY MEMBERS, FOSTER AND WILLIAMS, MADE HONORARY PEP CLUB MEMBERS

Mr. Williams and Mr. Foster were made honorary members of the T. H. S. Pep Club in appreciation for their cheering and spirit at games.

Senior football boys carried Mr. Williams and Mr. Foster into the gym at the pep assembly before the last home game. The Pep Club officers presented them with two wrapped presents. Two blue sweat shirts with "HONORARY PEP CLUB" written on the front and a megaphone with "TROY" written on it were the gifts. After donning the sweat shirts Mr. Williams and Mr. Foster led the students in a cheer.

By cheering with the Pep Club and leading cheers during basketball games, Mr. Williams and Mr. Foster have continued to promote school spirit.

Hold that line!

Peggy Williams

"GIRL OF THE WEEK" ADDS SCHOOL SPIRIT

THS Pep Club added a new feature this year. Three members were chosen as "Girl of the Week". The qualifications for a "Girl of the Week" were enthusiasm at the games, posters made by the members to boost spirit during the week of the game, and the standard uniform of the club had to be worn. The girls were chosen by Mr. Williams and Mr. Foster, who are honorary members of the Pep Club.

The first week Peggy Williams was chosen. Peggy is a Senior at Troy High and has been a member of the Pep Club four years. She is also president of the club this year.

Renee Hoffman was the next "Girl of the Week". She made many posters and further showed her enthusiasm by yelling vigorously at the games. Renee is a Freshman at THS this year.

Barbara Thomas was the third "Girl of the Week". Barbara is vice-president of the Pep Club and is a Senior this year. She has been a member of the Pep Club for three years.

KAYETTES CROWN RICK KING

On October 4, 1967, Rick Gronniger, a senior at T. H. S., was crowned king of the annual Kayette Homecoming during halftime ceremonies. The boys arrived in style on Mr. White-side's decorated truck. White carnations were given to each of the candidates.

King Rick was crowned by Barbara Thomas, captain of the team. The candidates were chosen by the football squad. The king was chosen from the candidates by the students who placed money in cans for the candidate of their choice. The team also chose the escorts who were Claudia Triplett (Gregg Thomas), Jane Gray (Jim Pickerell), Barb Thomas (Rick Gronniger), Peggy Shelton (Roger Masters), and Sandra Hoffman (Ronnie Masters). Sandra was absent on the day of the picture. Lois Kirby took her place.

The Highland Kayettes defeated our girls by a score of 4 to 0 on our own field, and they defeated our girls 7 to 0 on the Highland Field.

To keep the spirit of the THS girls high, Mr. Williams and Bill Penny made comments on the plays and players.

Even though the girls didn't do as well as they wanted to do, they enjoyed playing and being a part of all the excitement and fun.

SPEAKERS FROM INTERNATIONAL AND STATE SETTINGS VISIT TROY

Trooper Roy Kirkendall

Major Nicholas Terzopoulos

MAJOR NICHOLAS TERZOPOULOS delivered a timely speech on the history of Vietnam and the Vietnamese people on November 10, Veterans Day.

MR. VIC HYDE

Vic Hyde, noted musician and comedian, was guest speaker at THS on October 10.

Mr. Hyde has made thirteen tours of Europe, and has been on several television programs including an appearance on the show "Green Acres".

One of the most outstanding abilities he displayed was playing four trumpets simultaneously. The many varied instruments he played included a piccolo, slide cornet, a valve trombone and several instruments he had made.

Later in his performance he donned a wig and imitated some of today's popular dances.

STUDENTS

Chuck Hanna, who has held many students spellbound while delivering his emphatic orations, was guest speaker at THS during the month of January.

In his speech he emphasized that everyone was born equal and unique, and it was up to the individual person to make "something" of himself. He felt that everyone had some type of talent which he could develop and in which he could excel.

To stress his point, he often used his family as the target of humorous ridicule.

Believe in yourself!

WEB OF MURDER

THE STORY

The setting for this mystery is in an old Victorian house which sits high on a cliff overlooking the Pacific Ocean.

Minerva Osterman, played by Pat Harris, is a crippled, arthritic old woman who cannot maneuver without the aid of her wheelchair. She is also the owner of the house. Mrs. Osterman is aided by her daughter, Stephanie, played by Lynette Erzen, and the housekeeper, Nora, who was played by Debbie Clary.

On this particular stormy evening, Minerva is expecting guests, her nieces Mary, played by Bev Ross, and Belle Hamilton, played by Bev Engemann. They bring with them two unexpected guests: Keith Latimer, Mary's fiance, played by Tom Bruns, and Pete Martinelli, played by Gary Davies, who is Belle's fiance.

After the welcomes and memories have been discussed, Dr. Adler appears. The doctor was played by Don Clary. The doctor was the new family physician. He lived in the house in case Minerva needed immediate care.

The reason for the gathering of in-laws was that Mrs. Osterman wanted the pleasure of reading her own will to her relatives before she died. However, before the will was read she demonstrated the doctor's latest treatment. He hypnotized her and she tells everyone, while under, that three others besides herself will die that night from the venom of a spider. After recovering from the shock and after Minerva comes out from under the spell, everyone except Minerva retires to their rooms upstairs.

As Minerva sits speaking to the picture of William, her late husband, an uninvited guest appears through the secret passageway. Minerva's lawyer, played by Roger Guier, is blackmailing her with a secret which she does not want revealed. After agreeing upon the sum of three thousand dollars, the unwanted visitor exits through the passageway to his upstairs room.

Later the same evening, Minerva is found dead with a puncture of the skin, like a spider bite. The doctor pronounces her dead and she is carried to one of the upstairs rooms.

The next morning, Belle and Pete accidentally open the secret passageway and discover Stephanie and the lawyer dead. Stephanie had been strangled.

Deadly discovery, Minerva is dead (?)

Darling, as they say in the soap operas, I am madly, desperately, hopelessly in love with one man.

That same evening, about 8:00 P. M., Mary encountered Minerva. Minerva explains to Mary that her phony death was part of a plan. She said that she wanted to hide and see how everyone really felt about her so she would know who deserved to be included in the will. Mary could also see quite plainly that she was not an invalid, because she could walk. As Mary called to Keith, Minerva disappeared. As Keith searched for her in the upstairs rooms, Minerva again appeared in the passageway door, this time with a knife in her back. Keith and Dr. Adler brought all the remaining people into the room. After hypnotizing them, Dr. Adler asks each of them if they did the killing. No one admitted it. When they awaken, the doctor is gone and and Mary will not wake up. While everyone was under hypnosis, Dr. Adler was killed in his room by spiders, of course.

Miss Russell makes up Bev, who is getting ready to swing, Roger is occupied, and everyone is pressed for time, and losing make-up.

Mary still can't wake up, so everyone, except Nora, goes to town to get a doctor. After they had gone, Mary woke up. Nora told her that the precious William wasn't Minerva's husband, but her own husband, and Stephanie was her child, not Minerva's. The secret was that in a fit of rage after discovering her husband was in love with Minerva, Nora killed William. The secret had been hidden all those years, even from Stephanie.

Nora also admits killing the others. Then she tried to kill Mary. She had the box of spiders in her hand and all Mary had to do was to put her hand in the box. The two began to struggle. At this point Keith, Pete, and Belle enter the room. They hadn't gone for the doctor. They merely drove off, parked the car, and returned to listen through the door.

Nora finally gave Keith the box of spiders. Pete and Keith then took Nora upstairs. She was to be taken to a sanitarium. As they all went upstairs, Belle got the will from beneath the cushion on the sofa and handed it to Mary. They know that Belle had not been included in the will, but Mary decided to split the inheritance in half between Belle and herself.

This year's cast gave two performances. The first was a matinee, given mainly to grade and high school students, and the second was a Saturday evening performance.

Don't be sad, Mother.

THE PLOT

The setting for this drama in one act is the home of the Ross family and the time is shortly before 8 p.m., the present. As the play begins, the audience sees a typical family seated in their living room. Very soon, however, the family indicates its difference. At 8 p.m., a year ago, the son in the family shot and killed himself.

Mrs. Ross (Renee) is outwardly aware of the time and date and shows her distress at remembering. Lillian (Lois) tries to comfort her mother by telling her that David wouldn't want her to be sad. Lillian then begins to reflect on David's life just before his suicide and decides that since she and David were such good pals and told each other everything, if she had been at home instead of away at college, she would have been able to help him. The father (Wayne)

I wasn't harsh enough with David.

You don't care about me!

has tried to control himself through all this, but his restraint runs out and he sarcastically asks Lillian why she is mulling over the past now and what she hopes to accomplish. He states what everyone believes is the reason for David's death--his girlfriend married another boy. Lillian doesn't agree with him, but doesn't press the issue. She leaves to visit a friend.

Mrs. Ross cautions her husband to not be so harsh with Lillian, and this leads to an argument concerning his being too harsh with David whom Mrs. Ross claims to have been very sensitive. Henry defends his right to be stern and to control his son. He doesn't believe that he and his wife were harsh enough because their son didn't become the man he wanted him to be. The argument soon becomes Henry's argument with himself. All the talk about David stirred up things that Henry did not want to think about and his conscience begins to bother him. He reenacts his last scene with David in which he accuses the boy of gambling and stealing the mortgage money. The climax of the play comes when Henry discovers the mortgage money in a book--David hadn't stolen it. He admits his fault in his son's death.

The play was presented on March 12 at Midway and again later that month at K. U. in Lawrence.

My Fault! My Fault! My Fault!!

FOUR JUNIORS SELECTED FOR BOYS' STATE

Gary Davies

Kenneth Winder

Each year at Kansas University in Lawrence, a week session of Boy's State is held. The Troy American Legion is sponsoring two boys and the Kiwanis is sponsoring one boy to Boy's State in June.

The boys are chosen on the basis of their grades, their character, and their over all attitude toward school. From this list, the faculty selects the three boys they feel best meet these requirements. An alternate is also chosen in case one of the boys cannot attend Boy's State. During the week, a campaign is held and officers are chosen for the State. Other activities include learning how the government functions, special sessions with guest speakers, a Governor's reception, and a formal banquet. After returning from Boy's State, the boys will give a speech to their sponsors relating their experiences.

KEY CLUB AND KAYETTES ADD TO CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

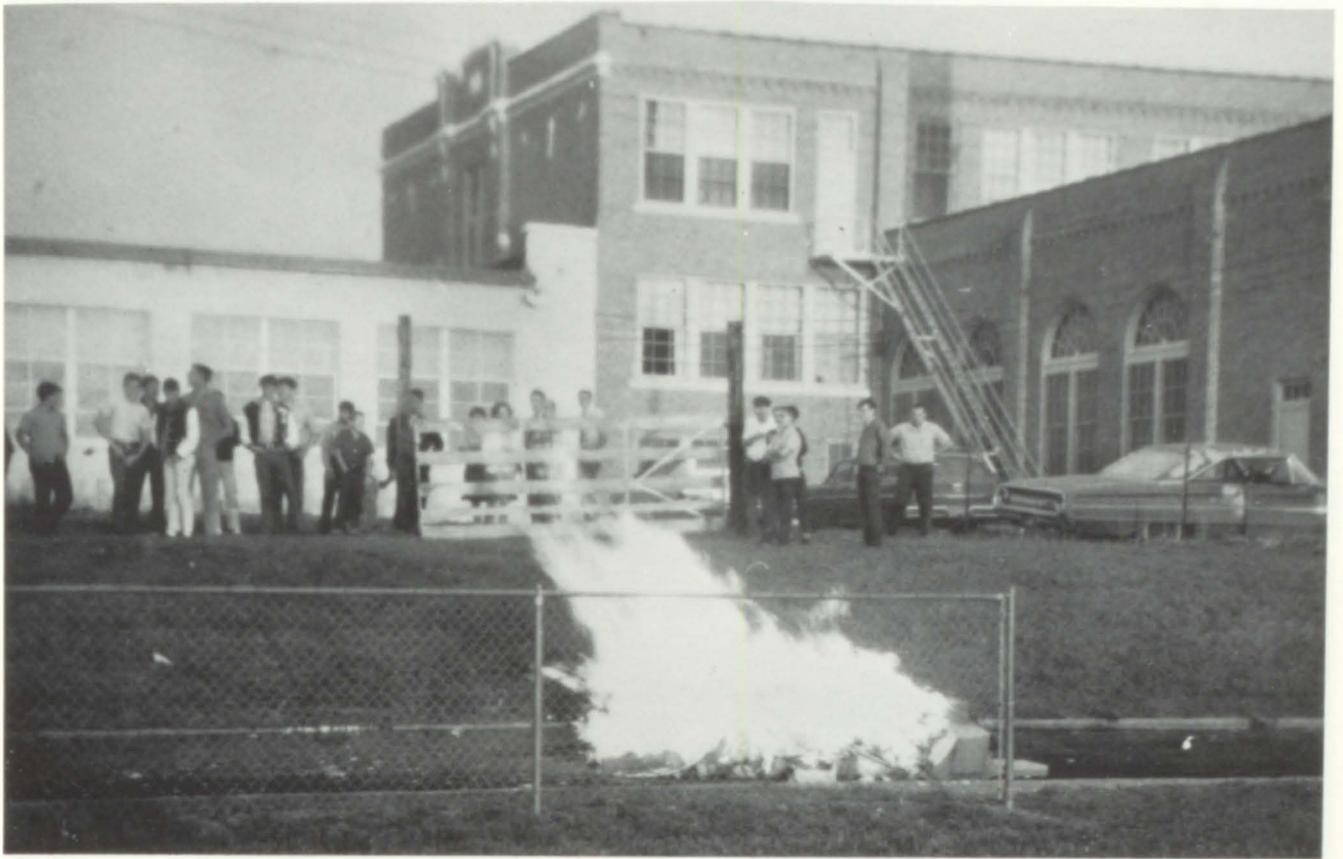

The THS Key Club and Kayettes sponsored a trip to Candy Cane Lane in St. Joseph for the Senior Citizens of the two nursing homes in Troy.

After seeing the Christmas decorations displayed at Candy Cane Lane, they returned to Troy and viewed Troy's decorations.

ANNUAL BONFIRE AND SNAKE DANCE PRECEDE GAME

On the day before the game with Highland, the Trojans gathered for the traditional bonfire and snake dance. As everyone neared the flaming fire, the Bluestreak dummy was tossed. As the flames roared higher the excitement grew and grew. This excitement reached its peak when the Pep Club, lead by the cheerleaders, snaked their way through the streets. Following the girls were the coaches and the team on a truck. The Pep Club and the cheerleaders formed a circle around the truck and led several rousing cheers in anticipation of the coming game.

Now that's a fire!

Let's get this thing going!

GREENHAND INITIATION BRINGS 13 NEW MEMBERS

As in years past, the F. F. A. Greenhand initiation brought new members into the 1968 Future Farmers of America.

On January 30, the initiates had to come to school dressed like girls and had to have one hand dunked in green paint for a part of the initiation. The boys also had to learn the F. F. A. creed, had to have a supervised farming program and had to be voted into the chapter by a passing vote of members. Despite the whistles and kidding, the boys seemed to enjoy their day.

They really are boys!

QUALIFICATIONS

One of the qualifications that a girl must meet in order to become an F. F. A. queen is to be able to perform different chores that a farm girl should be able to do.

In the above pictures the candidates are trying to pound a nail in oak. The girls are judging each chicken on its egg-laying ability in the center picture. By examining each one they were supposed to be able to tell. (One proved to be a rooster.) Girls in the picture below are squaring boards and then sawing them.

Bev met all requirements and was chosen queen.

MANY STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN CHORUS THIS YEAR

Nearly half of Troy High's student body is participating in chorus this year. Three choruses, under the direction of Mr. Carl Knudsen, have emerged from the mixed group pictured above--Girls' Chorus, Boys' Chorus, and Special Chorus. Chorus members have the "5th" hour each day for practice periods. A definite schedule is followed so that only one chorus practices on a given day. Members are dismissed from 4th Hour Classes approximately the last 20 minutes of the period and they eat lunch and then go to chorus. They sing until 1:00 and then return to their 6th Hour classes which are already in progress. At this time, the students have already participated in a K-36 Choral clinic held on November 21 at Troy High School. Through singing a student can gain an appreciation of music and learn to express himself well. The choruses in music at THS have proven to be a satisfying and rewarding experience for all who have participated in them. The chorus provides a music program each Christmas, accompanied by the school band. They also take part in spring contests at Emporia and Lawrence.

The special chorus was chosen at the beginning of the year. From this chorus a girls' and boys' ensemble was also selected at the semester by Miss Thorne and Mr. Knudsen. Mr. Knudsen rehearsed the special chorus to present a Christmas cantata. With the help of Miss Thorne, both ensembles entered the music contest held at Emporia State Teachers' College. They also presented a program to the public for their Spring concert. The special chorus meets on every Wednesday and the ensembles meet Mondays and Fridays. David Penny, a junior, is the pianist for all the singing groups.

MUSICIANS, TWIRLERS, AND CONDUCTOR COMPLETE PICTURE

In order to present a finished and professional picture, a band should have twirlers in addition to its musicians. The Troy High Band has five twirlers this year--one to lead each line of bandmen.

The THS Band members have worked hard this year to make their band a good one. They began practicing before the school year started.

The Band marched in Troy's Halloween Parade and they played "The Pink Panther". Mrs. Knudsen (wife of band director) was dressed in a pink panther outfit and handed out balloons to the children along the parade route. The band was also invited to the Hiawatha Halloween Parade.

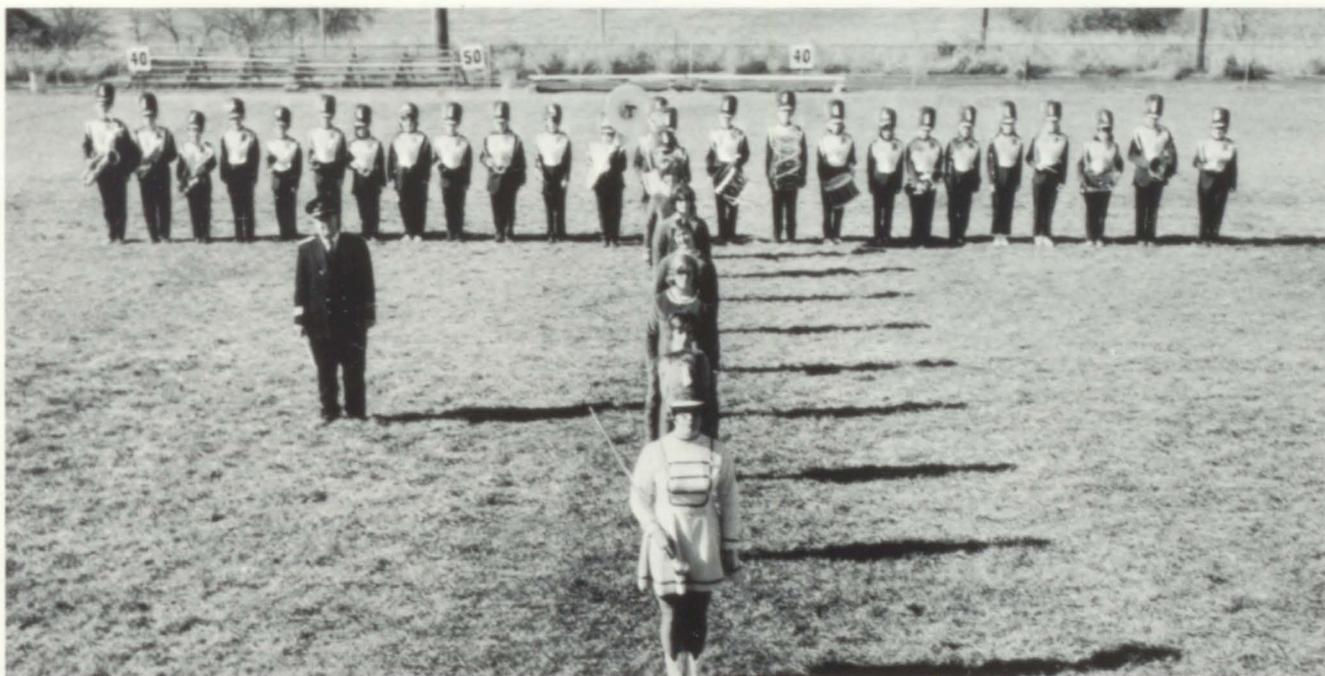

Band members are required to march at football homecoming, and in the Apple Blossom Parade and must play at pep assemblies and home games.

Members meeting the requirements will receive a full credit for their efforts during the year.

Band officers were elected this year. Each officer had a function to perform including the following: publicizing activities of band, keeping instruments clean and in proper working order, and filing sheet music.

"CHATTY TROJAN"

THS PEP CLUB BOOSTS SPIRIT

With the addition of a new sponsor, Mrs. Madeline Crosley, the Pep Club has carried out several projects to create school spirit in the team and in the student body. "Chatty Trojan", the THS mascot, made her debut in the pep assembly before the September 22 football game. Mr. Foster and Mr. Williams were made honorary pep club members for their enthusiasm at the games. During a pep assembly they were given sweatshirts with "Honorary Pep Club" printed on the front and a megaphone and "Troy" on the back. A "Red Carpet Day" was an added feature during Homecoming. Only the football boys were allowed to walk on the red crepe paper carpet in the main hall. Other projects throughout the year included the selling of white pins with "Happiness is a Trojan Victory" imprinted in blue on them. Selling chains with the basketball schedule on them was also another money-making project.

OFFICERS LEADERS T.H.S. PEP CLUB

Every organization needs and has its leaders, and the THS Pep Club is no exception. Throughout the year the officers of the Pep Club have had the responsibility of seeing that their organization accomplishes all its goals. These girls have promoted school spirit by seeing that game assemblies have been filled with enthusiasm. Another main contribution to the spirit of the school has been the wide variety of posters put in the halls on game days. All of these are prepared and hung by Pep Club members.

Principal duties and goals of the Pep Club are promoting school spirit, organizing pep rallies, practicing yells and songs, developing leadership qualities, building good sportsmanship, learning to cooperate with each other and other schools, arousing enthusiasm for THS, and setting good examples for the younger students.

At the beginning of the school year the officers and cheerleaders wrote a new constitution. This has also been a major factor in helping the club to be better organized.

The one person who has helped the Pep Club become a more active and influential organiza-

During this year the Pep Club has been one of the major organizations helping promote school spirit.

CHEERLEADING REQUIRES WORK

Cheerleaders are involved in much preparation before the public sees them on the field or on the court. Last spring the Pep Club, by popular vote, elected the 1967-68 cheerleaders. During the summer months the girls decided upon a two-toned blue and white overblouse and a blue skirt with white inset pleats for the football season. They changed part of their outfits to blue weskits for the basketball season.

"Trojans are victorious!"

"Troy Says HI!"

The "B" team cheerleaders were selected at the beginning of this school term. Their outfits are set off by a comic Trojan emblem drawn by Roger Guier. The "B" team cheerleaders cheered their first game at the football homecoming.

"If they score..."

The main purpose of the Kayettes is to serve. Throughout the year the Kayettes perform many worthwhile projects. Among the projects are the adoption of a family and the sending of gifts to Viet Nam. At Thanksgiving the Kayettes decorated the tables in the lunchroom and with Christmas approaching, the Kayettes were busily decorating the class rooms at THS.

Kayettes do find time to have fun. In the spring the organization had a slumber party which helped introduce the future members to the Kayettes.

THS Kayettes select two girls to attend Kayette Camp at Rock Springs Ranch each year. The delegates profit greatly by learning about the point system, publicity, and recreation, which help to make a better organization.

ACTIVE STUDENT COUNCIL HELPS STRENGTHEN SCHOOL

The Student Council of Troy High has taken upon many new obligations this year. They approve or veto extra-curricular activities as well as restrict the dress code. This governing student body has also held trial at assembly. Those on trial were reprimanded by the Student Council and sentenced. The students served as witnesses at the trial. The Student Council made suggestions as to discipline and the students have acted accordingly.

Another responsibility accepted by the Student Council this year was the sponsoring of the annual Christmas dance. This has traditionally been sponsored by the Kayettes; however, since they didn't feel financially capable, the Student Council, with the help of the school board, took over the project. After one of the football games, a dance was also sponsored by this organization.

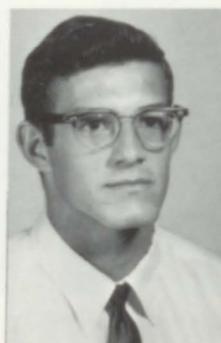

The Student Council members were elected from their home rooms and each class elected one representative. The officers were elected by the entire student body. Last year four students campaigned for an office. This year five students took an interest in their school affairs. The officers and members have worked with the administration and school board. The Student Council acts as a link between students and the administration.

LIBRARIANS LEARN AS THEY WORK

Librarians Keep Up With The News

At the beginning of each school term, Mrs. Warren, who is in charge of the library at THS, selects several students to serve as student librarians for the year.

The librarians have a number of responsibilities including checking in and out several hundred books each month. Besides this duty they help other students find books and research material for class assignments. They file new magazines, keep the library supplied with current newspapers, and study various aspects of library science.

A great deal of trust is placed in these eight girls and they follow in the footsteps of former student librarians who accepted and carried out their responsibilities.

Books and other publications are the key to a whole new world for some or an explanation of the present world for others and these student librarians help to make both available to their fellow students.

KEY CLUB SERVES T.H.S. AND COMMUNITY

Key Club is a service organization sponsored by the Kiwanis. Sophomore, junior, and senior boys are eligible for admission.

The aim of the Key Club is the development of initiative, leadership ability, and good citizenship practices. This year there are 12 members in the organization, which is sponsored by Mr. Whiteside. "We Build, to build better leaders from the youth of today and be of service to home, school, and community," is the motto of the club.

The Key Club sponsors the parent-teacher appreciation banquet, at which time the new members are inducted. The banquet this year was served by the Home Economics' girls.

During the Christmas season the Key Club invites area ministers to THS to give a brief talk on anything pertaining to Christmas. The club's major money-making project is the selling of Christmas trees during the Christmas season.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE STUDENTS

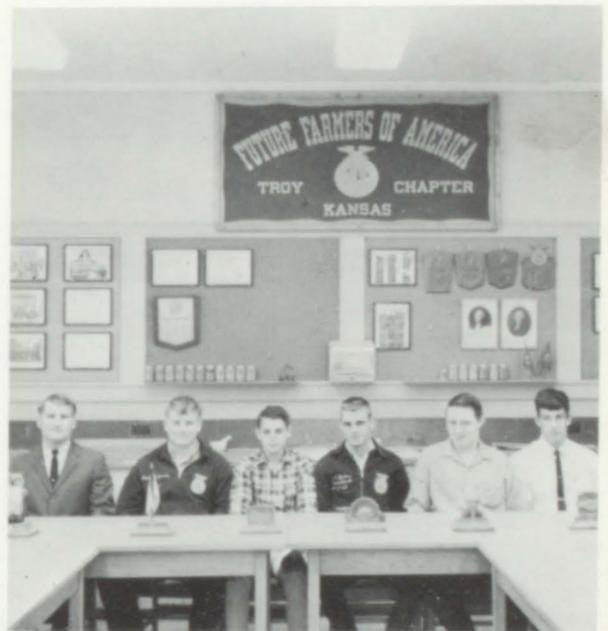

The "FFA" is the national organization for boys studying vocational agriculture in secondary schools under the National Education Arts' provisions.

This organization is a non-profit, non-political, non-sectarian farm youth organization of voluntary members designed for them to strive for leadership, to build a more permanent agriculture, and to improve country life. The Future Farmers of America is one-hundred per cent American in its outlook and in its ideals. They have no outside affiliations.

The national emblem of the FFA is made up of five symbols: the owl, the plow, and the rising sun, within the cross section of an ear of corn, which is surmounted by the American eagle. This emblem is significant and meaningful in every detail. The symbolic owl shows wisdom and knowledge; labor and tillage of the soil is represented by the plow; the rising sun is symbolic of progress and the new day that will dawn when all farmers are trained and have learned to cooperate; the cross section of an ear of corn is emblematic of common agricultural interests since corn is native to America and is grown in every state; and the eagle indicates the national scope of the organization. The emblem also carries the letters "FFA" and the words, "Vocational Agriculture."

Joe Anderson received the State Farmer degree. He is now entitled to wear the regulation gold emblem charm.

LANGUAGE CLUB ENCOURAGES STUDY OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES

From left: K. Winder, Mrs. Warren, S. Hoffman, P. Foley, and B. Engemann. Club officers try out language facilities in sponsor's classroom.

The main purpose of the Language Club is to encourage the study and use of languages. THS Language Club had 38 members this year. Activities of the organization include Christmas caroling throughout the city of Troy, the annual Book Fair (held February 7, 8, and 9), and, for the first time this year, they participated in the senior carnival by having the Sweet Shop. A spring party was also held for all members of the organization.

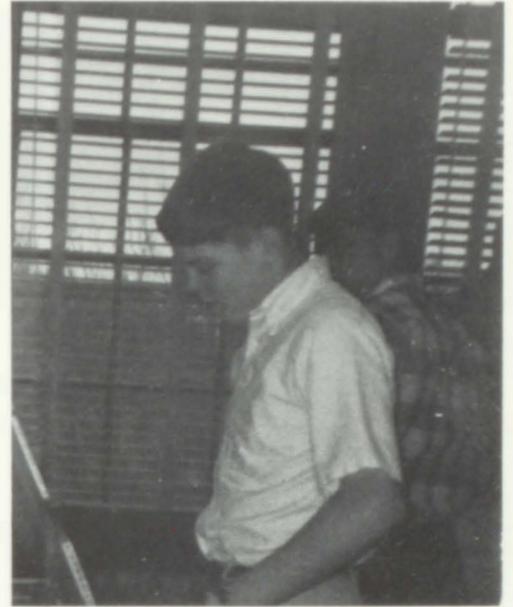

A pin is awarded to each member at the end of every year. Those participating two or more years receive a number attachment to the first pin they received.

The officers lead the many committees and assure that all members have a chance to participate in the various activities of the yearly program. Through studying the language of foreign countries, the students also learn about the countries themselves.

EFFICIENT TRUMPET STAFF MEETS DEADLINES

FEW GET JOB DONE

This year the members of the paper staff are few in number; however, this is not a problem for our studious and hard-working staff. These students are seen everywhere as a deadline approaches. They must find out who, what, when, and where and then they must print the information. They meet their dead-lines and always have a variety of interesting stories in the paper for students to read. During Christmas the staff added red and green color to the "Trojan Trumpet" to make a scene for the cover.

Five members of the staff and Mrs. Warren attended the 49th Annual High School Conference on September 23, at the University of Kansas in Lawrence. There the students attended valuable and interesting lectures on journalism.

A copy of the "Trojan Trumpet" was sent to K. U. to be criticized this year. The purpose of this practice is to have criticism from unbiased judges. They tell us what we are doing wrong and suggest what can be done to improve our newspaper.

The paper is published once a month.

ANNUAL STAFF HAS MUCH WORK TO DO

EASIER SAID THAN DONE

The annual staff works hard, especially as the three deadlines approach. The pictures have to be taken, placed, and cropped, copy and heads must be written, and everything must be put on triplicate forms.

These then have to be approved and sent to the publisher, who then takes over the job. Everyone has plenty of work, and the editor and sponsor are always in the middle of a busy group.

The staff took on extra work this year. They have approximately 20 more pages in the new yearbook, and have designed their own division pages and cover.

EDITOR AND ASSISTANT EDITOR COMPLETE ANNUAL

Mary Reeder Peggy Williams

The purpose of the 1967-1968 Trojan is to provide a summary of the year's events in pictures and copy, to capture every activity as it happened, and to give an accurate picture of life at T.H.S. We, the Trojan Staff, hope that we have accomplished this.

I sincerely thank Miss Russell for sponsoring the Annual Staff, and for her time and effort spent on the Trojan. I would also like to thank Peggy Williams, my assistant editor and those on the Annual Staff who worked to meet the deadlines.
