Our CULTURAL WORLD was small and complex. Each person's contribution was decisive in the total make-up of this year. It was a culture unique for one year, but it will change as people come and go while time steadily marches on.

Our ACADEMIC WORLD was boundless and ever challenging. We traveled from the parentage of time to peek wonderingly into the future. And while we passed laborously through the centuries in books, time in reality passed swiftly on.

One of the busiest people around T.H.S. is Janice Ashley as she continues for the second year to teach Junior and Senior level English, speech, news English and directs plays as well as supervises the publishing of the TROJAN TRUMPET and the TROJAN.

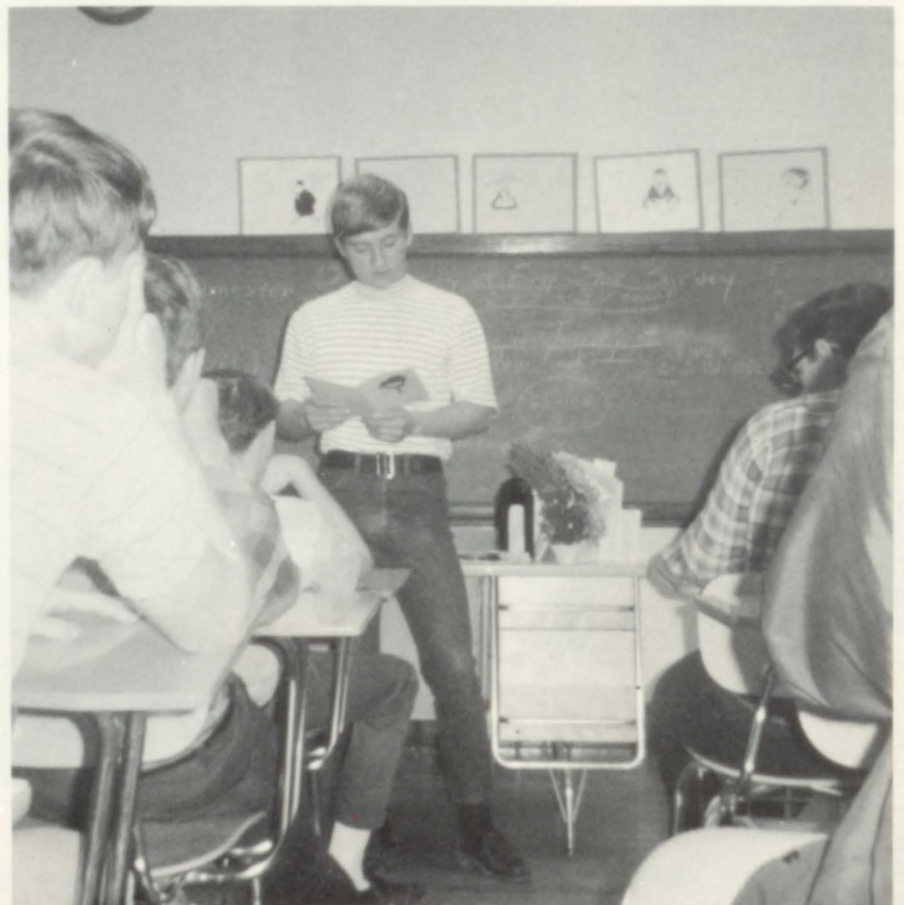

With two grade-school age boys and her husband as elementary principal, Mrs. Ashley attends most all school activities and plays around with horses in her spare time.

This is the sixth year in teaching for this teacher who has a Bachelor of Science in Education from Kansas State Teachers College at Emporia.

A new job in addition to an old one, brought Nick Dannevik back to T.H.S. for his fifth year in the Troy education system. He continued to teach English I and II—and added the challenge of school counseling to his duties.

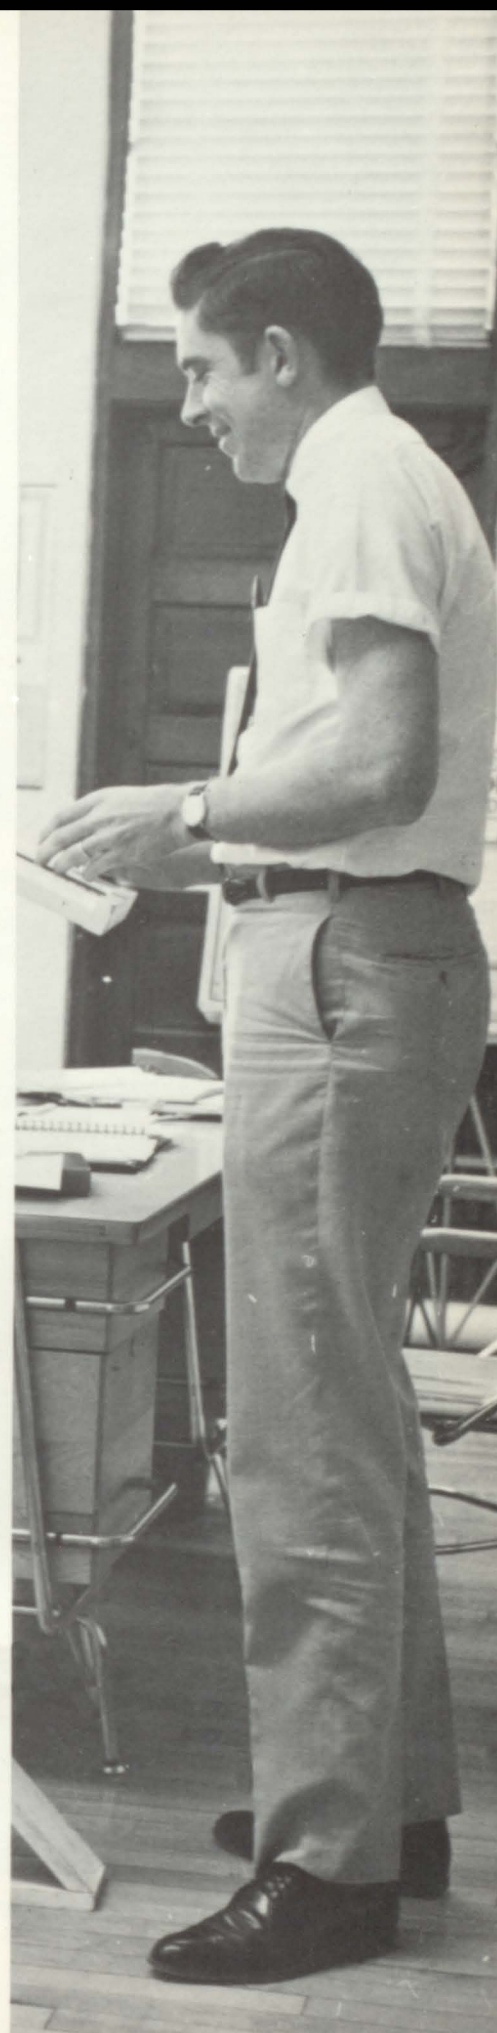

With a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education at K.S.T.C. Emporia, Mr. Dannevik has continued his studies at Missouri Western and is working toward a degree as a psychometrist.

A family of three and wife, Betty, in addition to a new home in west Troy, keep him busy with little time for hobbies of hunting and fishing.

Tom finds study is the key.

Books Are Gems

The students of THS are proud of their library which remains under the direction of Mrs. Ronald Warren and continues to be one of the most outstanding in Doniphan County.

Our librarian joins the staff for her sixteenth year. She received her Bachelor of Science from Kansas State University and has been teaching for 19 years. Mr. and Mrs. Warren reside on a dairy farm northwest of Troy.

Librarians: A. Schmidtke, P. Buch, G. Ruhnke, C. Buch, Ellen

Librarian Patty Buch spent much time putting up books.

in Any Language

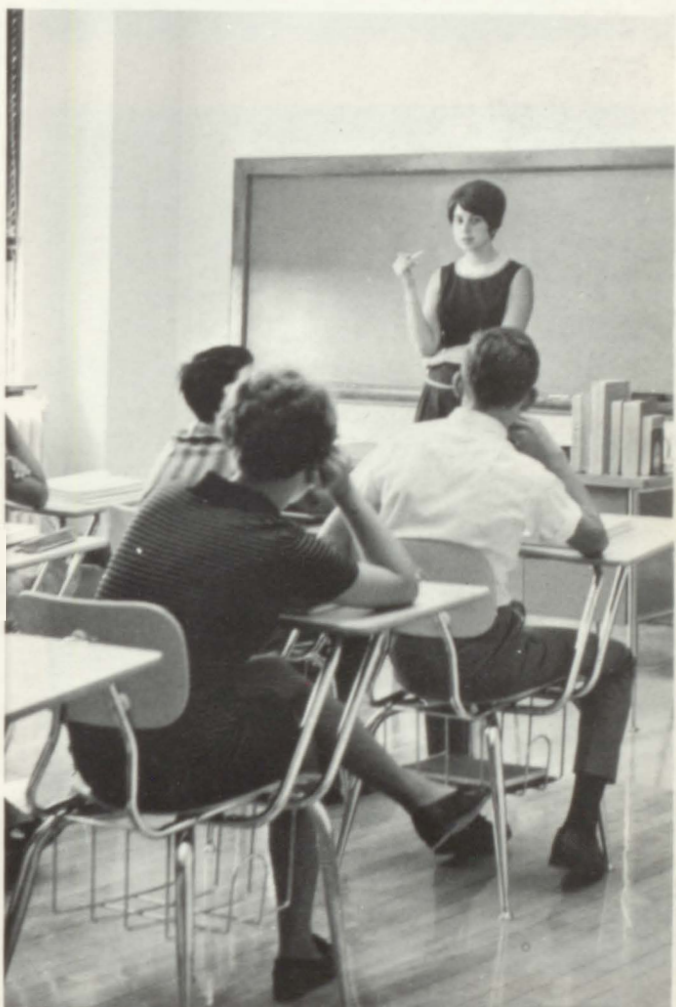

For the second year Carol Creager has been the instructor of French and Spanish classes at THS. She received her Bachelor of Arts from Kansas State College of Pittsburgh.

Outside of class she sponsors Language Club and the sophomore class. She enjoys fishing, cooking, and reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Creager live in Mrs. Delaney's apartment in Troy.

He majored in Education and minored in Physical Education, Philosophy, and Social Science. He received his Masters of Science from K.S.C. of Pittsburg, Kansas.

Mr. Grosdidier was the sponsor of the junior class and T-Club. He is the father of three children and his hobbies include playing golf and watching television. With his unending supply of jokes and wit this is one teacher who brightened the halls of THS.

Bringing spark to THS Pep Club and the mysteries of American History, Mrs. William Crosley returned for a third year. She made special arrangements for the more avid students to work in the State Senate and House and taught respect for individual responsibilities under the law in Current Affairs, and World History.

Mrs. Crosley graduated from K.S.T.C. at Emporia and is an active school supporter with a daughter in high school and a boy in 7th grade. During off-duty hours she knits, gardens, sews, and keeps up with a husband who flies in addition to being Troy High School Principal.

Math Motivates Daring Minds

Math, math, and more math kept Edward Heinen busy as he taught his second year at THS. He is a graduate of Kansas State University, where he received his Bachelor of Science in Education. Mr. Heinen sees 95 separate students a day while teaching General Math, Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, and Trigonometry. He also sponsors the senior class.

Mr. Heinen lives with his wife, Sue, on Mr. Folsche's farm outside of town. He enjoys basketball, football, hunting, and cars. He gains experience in farming during the summer by working for Mr. Whiteside.

Are you sure it's that simple?

Some kids know all the answers!

Algebra II students laugh over an age-old problem of mathematics.

Science Provides Intriguing Study

William Foster received his Associate of Arts from Highland Junior College. He went to the University of Idaho where he received his Bachelor of Science of Forestry. Then he attended the University of Chicago and received his Masters of Science in Botany, Biological Science.

Mr. Foster is actively involved in U.M.Y.F., FCA, and is grade school football, and basketball coach, church officer, and Sunday school teacher.

Mrs. Elder has spent two of her six teaching years at the Troy schools where she directs the beginning band and Jr. High band, seventh and eighth grade vocal, high school boys' glee club, and boys' ensemble.

Looking forward to his tenth year at T.H.S. Dale Whiteside continued to teach Typing I, Business Math, and General Business. He sponsors Key Club and Student Council.

One of the more interesting parts of his school plans are the many field trips taken with the General Business Classes in the fall. Trips this year were taken to Wathena Apple Shed, Pearl Brewery, L.F.M., Sanders Manufacturing Company, West Tab, and Doniphan County Courthouse.

Mr. Whiteside received his Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education from Kansas State University.

With a great interest in railroads and agriculture, Mr. Whiteside enjoys farming outside of school hours.

Typing I learns fundamental skills.

Students for the World

Filing is only one of the skills of office practice.

Mrs. Bill Acheson has completed two and one-half years of teaching at T.H.S. Mrs. Acheson teaches Bookkeeping, Typing II, Shorthand, Office Practice and Chorus. Out of school she sponsors Kayettes, Girls Ensemble, and Sing Out Donphian County.

After attending Kansas State Teachers' College of Emporia she received her Bachelor of Science in Education.

Hobbies include playing the piano, watching basketball and skeet shooting. She and her husband, Bill, live at 1600 Santa Fe Street in Atcheson, Kansas, from where he commutes to work at International Harvester in St. Joe, Missouri.

Mrs. Acheson does not plan to teach next year.

In preparation for Ag. Mechanics contest, Russell Karn practices tool identification.

One of the most rewarding classes this year at THS was Vocational Agriculture which was under the instruction of Marvin Creager. This year Mr. Creager had four classes of Vocational Agriculture.

Vo. Ag. I consisted of four freshmen mainly studying general livestock.

Seven sophomores took Vo. Ag. II this year. They studied production, nutrition, and reproduction.

Vo. Ag. III studied crops and soils. Later they worked on loading chutes, feed bunks, and shelves.

Welding skills, carpentry, surveying, and small engines were the main topics of study for Vo. Ag. IV.

Competing with other F.F.A. chapters is a big part of Vo. Ag.

Motor maintenance is an important part of Driver's Education.

After eighteen total years in the THS school system, Fred Folsche just can't seem to get away. He attended Highland Junior College for two years and received his Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education from Kansas State University.

This year he teaches four Industrial Arts classes, two Driver's Education classes, and a Physics class.

Among his outside interests, aside from sponsoring the National Honor Society and the Junior class, Mr. Folsche enjoys flying and farming. He and his wife, Cathy, have recently purchased a farm south of Troy and are on their way to becoming full fledged farmers.

A third year shop project for Dennis Culp was completed.

THS welcomed Mrs. Jim Goss (lower left picture) back for her twenty-first year of teaching at Troy. She received her B.S. degree from Kansas State University. Mrs. Goss met the challenge of five Home Ec. classes a day which included girls ranging from freshmen to seniors. She also sponsored the sophomore class.

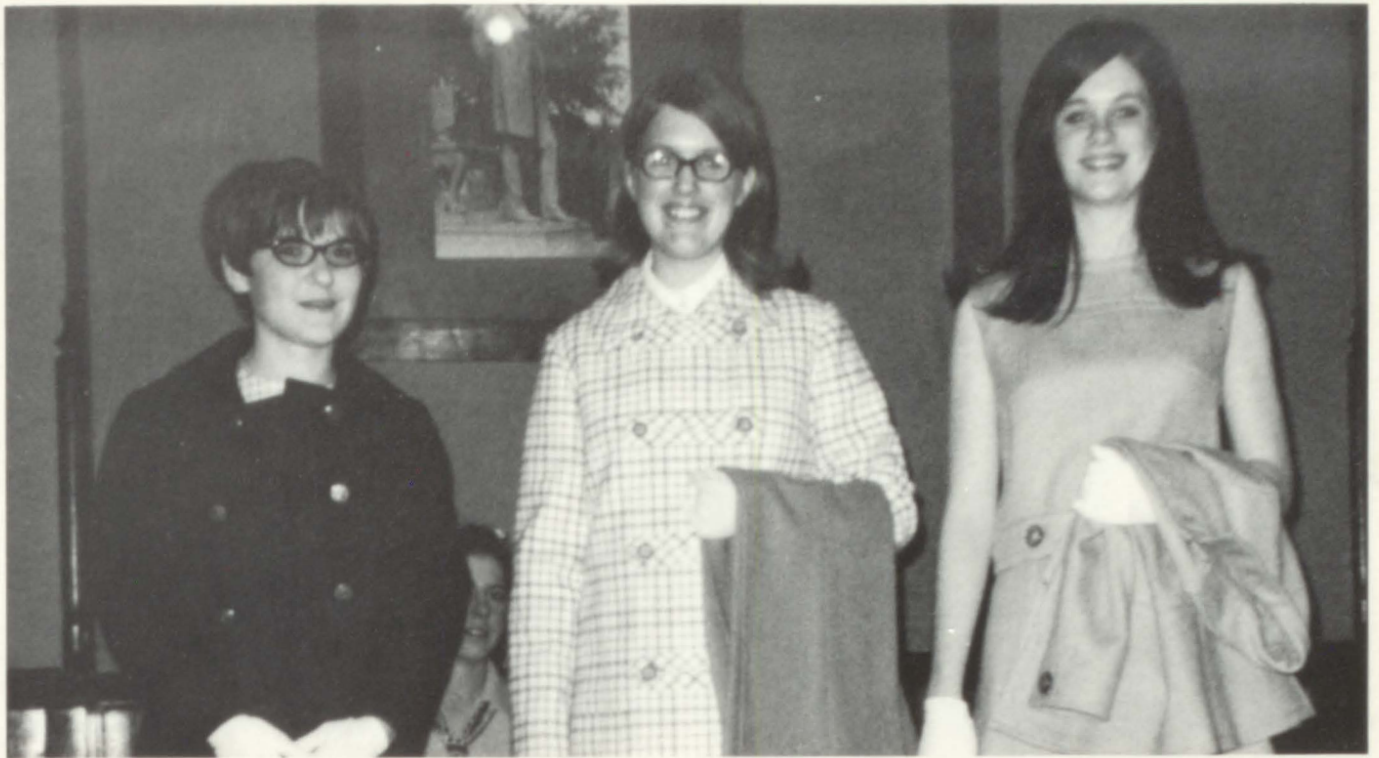

Besides taking care of her family, she enjoys sewing very much.

Some of the highlights of the year for the Home Ec. I and III girls were the SLK and the May style shows. The girls worked all year sewing in preparation for the style shows. The Home Ec. II girls enjoyed serving banquets and a tea. The home living class benefited from field trips to a home show, a food show, and a tour of a home in Stonecrest.

A newcomer to the THS faculty was Elaine Brant. Miss Brant, who is from Topeka, obtained her Bachelor of Arts from Westmar College in Le Mars, Iowa.

Miss Brant taught girl's physical education in grades 4 through 9 and sponsored girl's basketball, freshman class, and Pep Club.

Aside from school activities, Miss Brant enjoys sewing and being in the great outdoors.

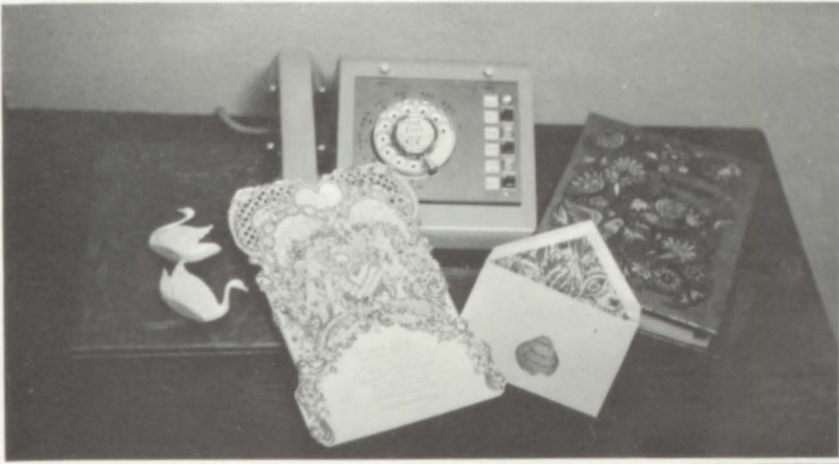

P-E Stands for Physical Endurance

Another course taught by Mr. Edward Grosdidier was boys' Physical Education. Football, basketball, volleyball, boxing, and softball were a few of the fields of sports covered throughout the year.

Our SOCIAL WORLD was hectic but filled with gay and memorable moments. We passed blissfully from the annual signing party and fall hayrack rides sorrowfully to the end of the year with prom and graduation. Time seemed suspended between the events that filled our calendars as time raced on.

Student Council Aims for Progress

Mr. Ruby Burhalter gave the T.H.S. student body a fascinating assembly on Switzerland. He got everyone in the act with his Swiss traditions.

The student council members examine their Tom Wat sales kits. The sale of these products was a money-making project totaling a sale of $795.01.

The annual electing of the Kayette king was held this year during a sock-hop dance sponsored by the Kayettes. Candidates were Paul Greaser, Marvin Gaither, John Turpin and Jeff Boeh. As usual the students voted by penny vote.

Kayetts Strive for Goal

This year the Kayettes were very active striving toward the Kayette 3000 point award. The membership drive was held in September (below) followed by the pledge test taken by all new members, (left). The rest of the year was spent working to achieve the 1000 more points needed to be added to the 2000 points already earned. Working enthusiastically on projects concerning national, community, world, and school service, the club achieved its goal.

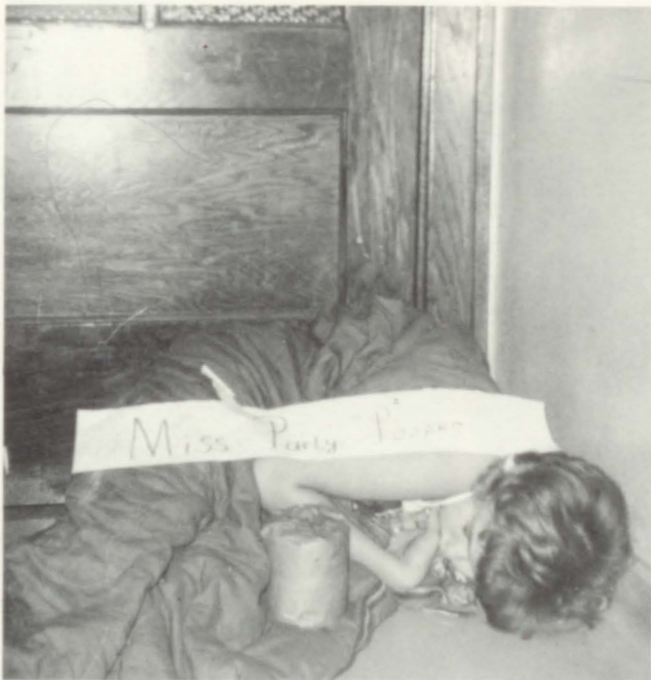

King Mike Meier gives a big smile as Escort Janet Norris crowns him.

The Kayettes chose the theme of Coughin' to Coffin' for the Halloween float. It didn't win any prize, but the message was good.

Marta Seiter was the first asleep at the Kayette slumber party held for the new members at the high school. The party was held so the new members could get acquainted with Kayettes.

Key Club Builds Character

The Key Club completed its ninth year with a float which received first place in the Annual Halloween Parade in Troy. The week before Christmas they again had area ministers come to talk to the student body.

On March sixth the club paid tribute to their parents with a banquet. The speaker was Wayne Acheson, a member of the F.C.A.

Nine Key Clubbers and their sponsor, Mr. Whiteside, went to the District Key Club Convention in Topeka March 20-22. A highlight of the trip was receiving the third place award in the Bronze Division.

The Key Club presented a program as tribute to the THS coaches at a Kiwanis meeting and later to the student body. They held a Pancake Day April 14, at the American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Madeline Crosley and Miss Elaine Brant presented Pep Club letters and bars to deserving members. Twenty-two freshmen received letters, one junior received a letter, and 1 senior received a letter. Fifteen received bars for letters.

Jane Gray—A-Team

The cheering squad of 69-70 was selected in May of '69. During the summer Linda Albers, Pam Jones, Rosa Ruhnke, Barb Gardner, Glenda Ruhnke, and Lynda Tetlow spent a hectic week learning new cheers and pom-pom routines at NCA cheerleading camp. While there, the girls won a spirit stick and two ribbons.

To help raise money for their emblems, the squad sponsored a sock hop in September.

After many hours of faithful drill and practice the girls executed many acts of spirit throughout the season to spur the Trojans team to victory.

"Our Winter Love" was the theme of the 1970 annual Queen of the Courts game and dance. The game against Wathena on February 13, 1970 was one of the most exciting games of the year. With only a 2-point loss, the game was really worth seeing. Queen Jane Gray was crowned between the A and B games. “A Rocket in his Pocket”, the junior play presented May 9, 1970, was complete with rockets, kisses, a female coach, and the first male teacher in a small western town high school in ten years.

From the first blast of Spaceman’s rocket out of the English classroom to the explosive results when Miss Chisle sheds her gunnysack dress and goes after Mr. Agnew, the play was a riot.

Total receipts of the performance were $211.95. The play was produced and directed by Mrs. Sherman Ashley.

Senior Carnival Is a Smashing Success

The Seniors of '70 opened a very successful carnival with a take-off of the "Tom Jones Show". Tom (John Turpin) had as his guests singing and playing sensations of T. H. S.

After the program, various classes and organizations operated money-making booths. The Senior class made a profit of $169.48 on the program and booths.

Mike Meier hobbles around after accident.

People are too lazy to use a fishing pole.

'70 Takes a Historical Voyage

After leaving a day ahead of schedule, on the 24th instead of the 25th, the Seniors got off to a glorious start. On the way the bus had a blow-out. (above) But everyone arrived at the Kalfram Lodge safely. It was at the Lodge pool that Mike Meier received a foot laceration. (top left) Many activities filled the 4 days, like swimming, voluntary and in-voluntary. A trip to Dog Patch was taken successfully. Of course, a lot of fooling around was done, but what would a trip be without fooling around. Right?

Dreams Begin

This year 29 students, 7 girls and 22 boys, graduated from Troy High School.

The class of '70 was the smallest currently enrolled in T.H.S.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening, May 17. Rev. Gary Appleton gave the address.

Tuesday evening, May 19, the graduating class was led into the gym by the junior class while the T.H.S. band played Pomp and Circumstance. Mr. Lowell Gish, chairman of the Education department of Baker University gave the commencement speech, "Outer Space—Inner Space . . ."

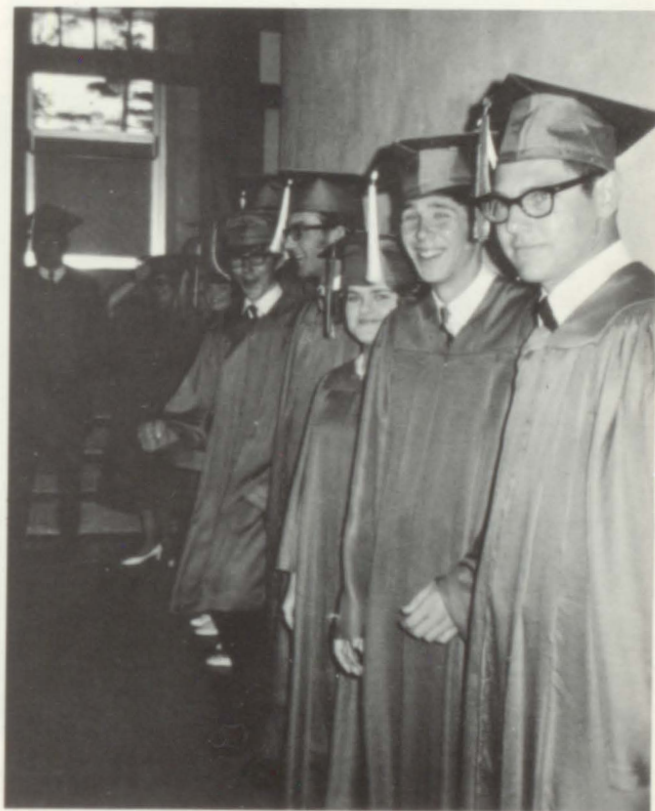

After graduation exercises, a dance was held in honor of the graduating seniors. The dance was sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of Troy.

These nine seniors started the first grade together at Troy Grade School in September 1958.

Seniors selected for membership in the National Honor Society for the 1969-70 school year were John Elder, John Turpin, Janie Gray, Vicki Foley, Mike Gardner, and Arlen

THS Seniors Represent Honor Society

Mike Gardner proved all-around ability with senior play performance.

John Elder worked after hours for coaches in trainer capacity.

Our PHYSICAL WORLD was uncertain. Once again we faced the year with renewed strength and determination to grasp that illusive spirit of victory but when it seemed to be ours it slipped again from our grasp. And time slowly ground on.

The Trojan football team started the year with a renewed "spark" of enthusiasm. The squad came close to success until after the Midway game, when they started to lose spirit. After winning only one K-36 league game (against Elwood), they also won their last game of the season by defeating Easton.

The team was under the leadership of a new coach, Tom Smith, a native of Highland. Coach Smith demanded long hours of hard practice and enforced many rules.

Assistant Coach, Ed Grosdidier, expressed a possible philosophy for our team when he said, "We play for fun, but it's no fun to lose."

Mike Meier, a tackle, was nominated to the first all league team selections.

“To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose
under the heaven . . .

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.”

ECCL. 3:1.8

And a time to say good-bye.

Sincerely your editor,

Victoria E. Foley
