As I look back on this year, I realize it has been a very good one. Construction finally got started on the middle school and new gymnasium which should be completed in October.

I have been very thankful for all the help I've had from the rest of the yearbook staff. Without a good staff this book would have never been completed. Mrs. Rockey was the best advisor my class could ask for, and it was she that pushed us and kept us going.

Troy did well on the competition level too. Troy took first in the league speech festival for the second year in a row, and all the plays that were put on were outstanding.

In the way of sports we also fared well, taking second in both football and cross country. The basketball teams made it to the semi-finals of the league tournament for the first time in years. The track team also finished the season very strong.

The music department, led by Mr. Manning, had a great season in which the band and chorus performed excellently.

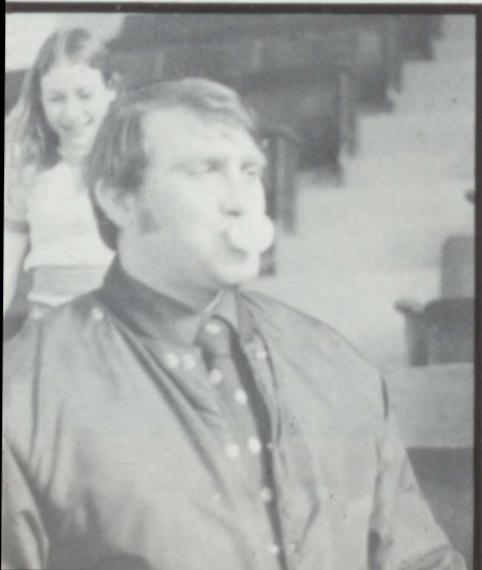

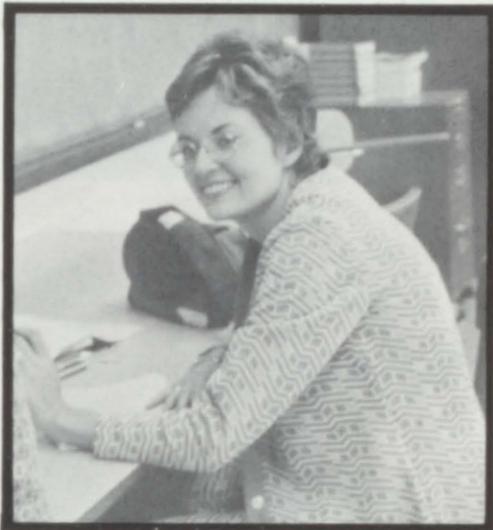

Although inflation and recession were with us, we can agree it was a very good year.

FACULTY

In April of 1974 the partons of U.S.D. No. 429 of Troy, gave solid support to their schools by passing the first major school bond in almost fifty years.

While for some school districts, a $700,000 school bond would not be considered a large issue, it was indeed a major breakthrough for the Troy district and everyone who supported the issue and had an active part in getting the job done, should feel proud of this accomplishment.

The 1974-75 school term has been a good one with very few problems. This is a tribute to students, parents and school personnel in working together to accomplish satisfactory results.

I feel that we have one of the better school systems for our classification size and we can still make it even better by adding courses in Art and Vocational Education as soon as it becomes economically possible.

Our athletic teams, musical organizations and speech/drama groups have represented our school well this year. Our FFA teams have done very well in their contests and we are proud of the work and efforts of our Kayettes, Student Council, Pep Club and Cheerleaders. Our newspaper and yearbook staffs have put in much time and effort to publish school events and we appreciate their fine work. On behalf of the board of education and myself, I extend our heartiest congratulations to all participants and sponsors.

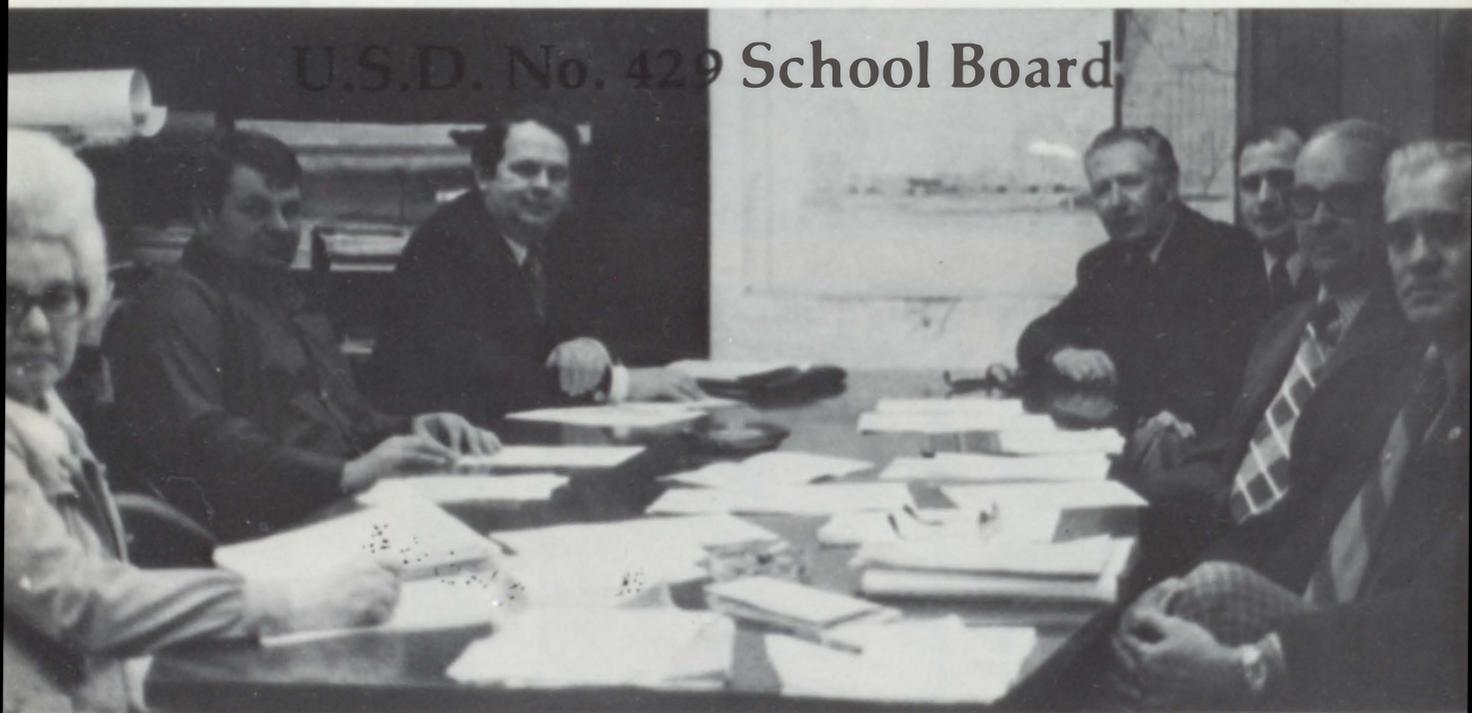

As we approach the end of our associations with the seniors, we commend them on a job well done and desire that they go on to become worthwhile citizens wherever they are.

THS Gains New Principal

Principal, John Cavanaugh, was new to the system this year. This administrative change required adjustments on everyone's part. Mr. Cavanaugh instituted several new privileges for the students. He began an open lunch period with smoking allowed in the parking lot, and permitted seniors to leave after 4th hour. One of his new rules was that lunch tickets could only be bought during the last ten minutes of the first three hours. Even though students were disciplined strictly for certain things it was mutually agreed that Mr. Cavanaugh handled things very well.

Mrs. Martha Rockey was new to the English department this year. She sponsored the yearbook and junior class.

Mrs. Babetta Israel returned to THS second semester. She had a daughter Marcie Lynn, Oct. 1, and spent first semester at home enjoying the company of her new baby.

Mr. Bob Wallace taught English this year as well as foreign languages. He taught the new mini courses, Vocabulary for H. S. and College Bound Students, History of the English Language, and To Build a Language.

Other new courses were Grammar and Spelling Review, Remedial Reading and Spelling, Fundamentals of Speech, the Poetic Experience, and two new literature courses, Early American and Modern American Literature.

Mrs. Carol Mix and Mrs. Israel each taught a section of the new mini course, Life Ideas. Students taking the course studied about different philosophies of life, and experienced various aspects of life, such as learning how to do the laundry and how to cook.

Miss Janet Guier brought in a new course this year at THS, Library Science, in which the students studied about the library, and how to file cards and replace books on the shelves. She was also senior class sponsor.

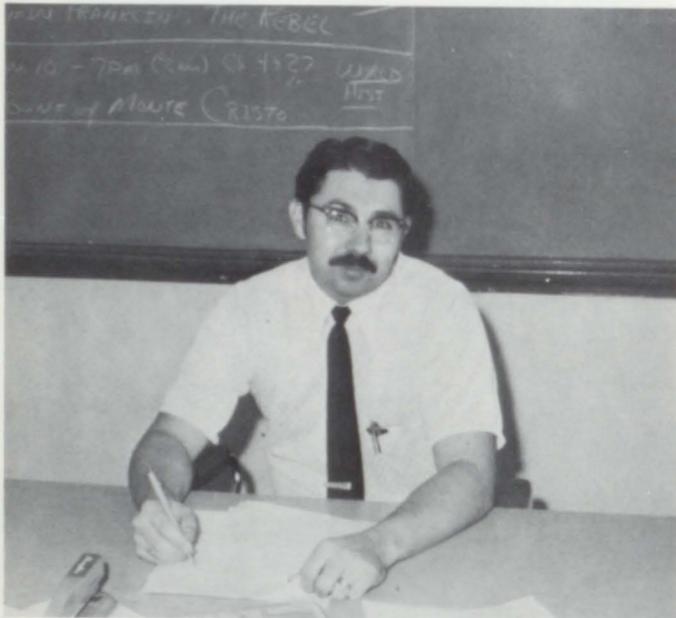

Again this year Mr. William Foster taught general science, chemistry, and biology. As in the past, he was cross country coach and assistant track coach. To those coaching duties, this year he added senior high B-team basketball. He also sponsored the freshman class.

Miss Marilyn Miller and Mr. Clifford Manning headed the music department at THS. Miss Miller instructed Junior High Chorus. Mr. Manning taught chorus and band, and gave lessons in an independent study program. This was to give students a chance to study on a one-to-one basis with the teacher, and to improve in their difficult areas. When asked about his reaction to the program, Johnathan Bascom replied, "I benefitted from the personal attention and help he gave me."

Mr. David Fager, instructor of special education, was new to THS this year. His students had several interesting projects, including making ecology boxes for the Co-op Building and making Christmas cards for an art contest.

Escorts: Kelly Franken, Tim Goss, David Elder, Dick Masters, Mark Peden. Attendants: Brenda Speaks, Gail Koehler, Queen Denice Whetstone, Teresa Reder, Cynthia Masters.

Homecoming Victory!

Trojan Spirit Goes Undampened!

With joy amid rain, Denice Whetstine was crowned Homecoming Queen 1974, by head escort David Elder, on October 11. The other attendants and escorts were: Cynthia Masters and Mark Peden, Teresa Reder and Dick Masters, Brenda Speaks and Kelly Franken, and Gail Koehler and Tim Goss. Julie Goss and Chris Wilson presented red roses to Queen Denice and each attendant. Stevie Smith and Pat Franken were crown bearers.

The misty night began well and ended even better by the Troy Trojans taming the Wathena Wildcats 59-14. The Troy High School Band gave a stunning performance during half time.

Afterwards, starry-eyed students danced to the beat of "Kaptain Krunch" in the setting of "Stairway to Heaven." The Troy Pep Club sponsored the dance and furnished refreshments of sandwiches and punch.

Juniors Present . . . You Can't Take It With You

"You Can't Take It With You," a comedy in three acts by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, was presented by the junior class Nov. 21 and 22.

Act I introduces the Sycamores who at first seem mad, but it is not long before we realize that if they are mad, the rest of the world is madder. In contrast to these delightful people are the unhappy Kirbys. The plot shows how Tony, attractive young son of the Kirbys, falls in love with Alice Sycamore, and brings his parents to dine at the Sycamore home on the wrong evening. The shock sustained by the Kirbys, who are invited to eat cheap food, shows Alice that marriage with Tony is out of the question. The Sycamores, however, though sympathetic to Alice, find it hard to realize her point of view. Meantime, Tony, who knows the Sycamores are right and his own people wrong, will not give her up, and in the end Mr. Kirby is converted to the happy madness of the Sycamores, particularly since he happens to be there during a visit by an ex-Grand Duchess, earning her living as a waitress.

No mention has at yet been made of the strange activities of certain members of the household engaged in the manufacture of fireworks; nor of Rheba, the maid, and her friend Donald; nor of Grandpa's interview with the tax collector when he tells him he doesn't believe in the income tax.

Director Ms. Donna Leuzler readies Gaylon Merritt for the evening performance.

"Well, Sir, here we are again. . . and when you've got your health you have just about everything," says Grandpa.

"No, I don't think my figure has changed," says Mr. DePinna.

"Dear Miss Sycamore: "I love you, I love you, I love you," says Tony.

Kolenkhov presents, "The Grand Dutchess, Olga Katrina."

Barnwarming Kindles Spirits!

Janie Turpin was crowned Chapter Sweetheart at the 1974 Barnwarming sponsored by the Future Farmers of America, Dec. 6. David Elder, head escort, presented Janie with a lovely crown and an FFA jacket. Patty Neumann was selected runner-up. Each of the four attendants was presented with a gold charm with FFA inscribed.

Mr. Lloyd Barnett, FFA sponsor, brought a new perspective to the Sweetheart selection process. In previous years the contestants only participated in judging events. This year, Mr. Barnett requested a theme from the contestants titled, "Why I Would Like to be Chapter Sweetheart." As has been done in the past, contestants were judged on their proficiency in milking a cow into a pop bottle, catching a greased pig, and sawing a board in two. Judges were Mr. John Cavanaugh, Mr. Dale Whiteside, and Mr. Fred Folsche.

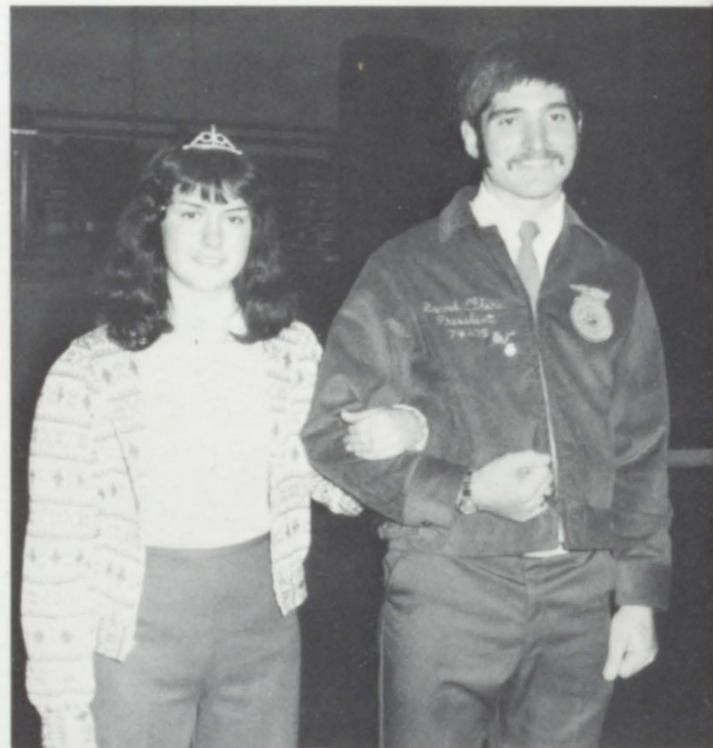

Bob May, the local disc jockey from KKJO, provided the records for the Sweetheart dance. Refreshments of doughnuts, cookies, and punch were served by the FFA.

Mary Sanderson, Cathy Clary, Karen Adams, Queen Janie Turpin, Patty Neumann, Deb Reder, Sara Owens, and Ginny Whitsell.

Patty, concentrate on milking, not on Steve Whittaker!

The Queens Of The Court

Pep Club rises to honor royalty while the Pep Band plays "Love Theme From The Godfather."

Trojan spirit was high at the Troy-Jackson Heights game Feb. 21, because the B-team was victorious and undefeated for the season. Between the B and A team games Mark Peden crowned Brenda Speaks the 1975 Queen of Courts in a standing-room-only crowd. Attendants and their escorts for the evening were Brenda Speaks and Kenny Pierce, Marianne Reder and Mark Peden, Teresa Reder and Tim Goss, Cynthia Masters and David Elder, and Gail Koehler and Tony Clary.

Crown and flower bearers were Sara Elder, Pam Clary, Mike Jamvold, and Tim Manning.

Despite the A-team loss to the great Jackson Heights team, the school supported a record dance in the gym afterwards. Mr. Bob Young was the disc jockey for the evening. Pep Club furnished refreshments of cookies and punch.

"Once upon a time there was a girl--and there was a feller," says Annie. "I heard that story," says Jake.

Annie ponders, "Watch this one, Mister! Pull!" "Miss!" says Buffalo Bill. "What's got me? Gimme that one!" as Annie panics.

On April 18 and 19, the senior class presented "Annie Get Your Gun," a comedy in three acts by Dorothy and Herbert Fields.

Annie Oakley, shy and awkward, comes to the hotel to sell rabbits to the proprietor, but the proprietor is more interested in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, which is moving into her hotel. The irritated proprietor, after seeing Annie demonstrate her ability with a gun, has her accept Frank Butler's challenge. While she is waiting for the match to start, Frank Butler wanders in. Annie falls in love on the spot, but that does not stop her from beating Frank in the contest--to the amazement of the crowd. However, Buffalo Bill, worried about competition from other shows, wants Annie to join their troupe. Frank, jealous of his standing as a star, insists that Annie be no more than his assistant. This suits Annie fine, for she is so in love with Frank she goes limp every time she looks at him. Frank finds himself falling in love with Annie, too. Buffalo Bill needs something new to catch the public's fancy and decides to give Annie a spectacular stunt--to make her the star. She expects Frank to rush backstage after the stunt and propose. Instead he is outraged. He writes her that he is leaving. Both Frank and Annie are miserable, and their separate shows are both having financial trouble. Other members of the troupe try to get them back together again. But the old argument bursts out once more--who is the best shot. They decide to shoot it out once and for all. Annie throws the match and wins Frank's love.

Annie: "Am I an Indian yit?" Sitting Bull: "Almost." Annie: "Do we always carry on thataway when we take in new members?"

Color It Springtime

With lots of help from all the home economics classes, this year's style show, held April 30, was a big success. Many mothers and alumni attended, including a former student who brought her home economics class from Washington, Kansas. The decorations were borrowed from the junior class and created the atmosphere of a lawn party.

This was Mrs. Goss's 25th style show at Troy High School, and to add a touch of elegance to the show she had two of her former students model the wedding dresses they had made for their weddings.

Elaine Staudenmaier has gone bananas.

Melody Merritt gives Mrs. Goss flowers from all the home economics girls.

THS Assemblies

Coaches Commend Players

Coach Tom Smith and Coach Ron Tuley both thought the 1974, 8-1 season, was one of the best. "We got out of the team what they were capable of," replied Coach Smith. Defensive Coach Tuley said, "Defense was as good as in the past; offense lacked a little spark."

"Many say that seniors had the best attitude of the team, but the sophomores' ability threatened the seniors," were Coach Smith's words. Coach Tuley commented, "We have enough talent in the sophomore and junior class to have another great year."

In a salute to the graduating seniors, each was asked his opinion of the '74 football season. Here are their comments.

Tony Clary: "It was the best season I've ever played for offense and defense both. My main goal was to make All-Area again this year, which I did."

David Elder: "Great! I enjoyed myself more than any other season. I didn't accomplish my goal; I wanted to go to State. I felt I was lucky to be able to play on a winning team."

Kelly Franken: "My goal was to win the league and go to State. We just missed by one game."

Tim Goss: "I did a lot better than I thought I was going to, and I had a lot of fun because I got to play with all my friends. I accomplished one of my goals, which was to make All-League."

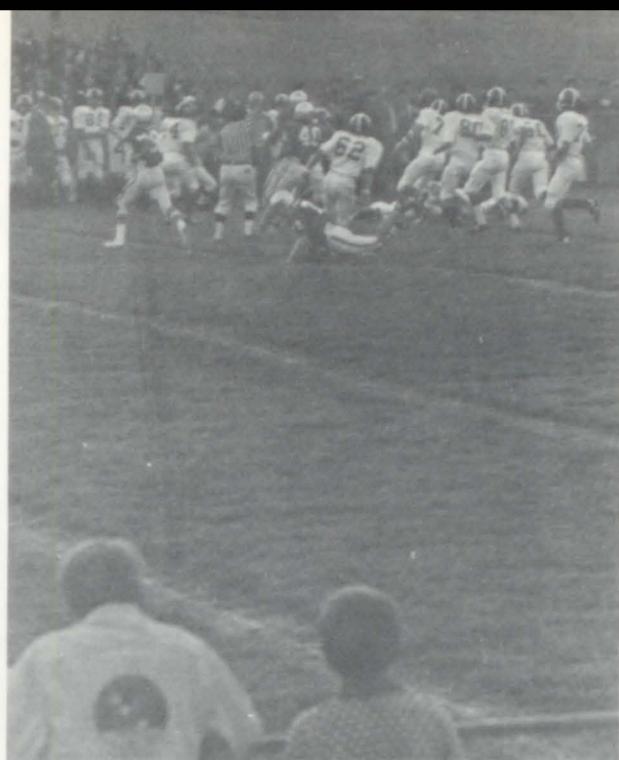

Rick Kostman: "I had a lot of fun. I had a goal to be a starter and I made it. I think we could have won them all instead of losing to Highland."

Dick Masters: "We had a better season than anybody thought we would. I think we should have beaten Highland, though. I was trying to make All-League and was trying to help the team go to State, but it didn't."

Mark Peden: "I was a little disappointed because I didn't start at fullback. As a whole, I enjoyed the season except for the Highland game."

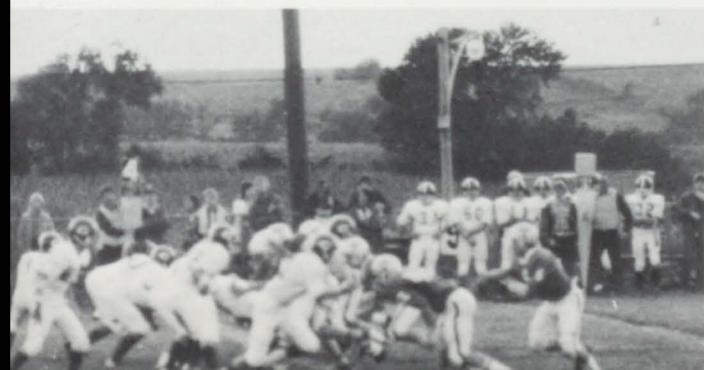

Kenny Pierce: "We had a good season. I got to start, and had a lot of fun."

George Smith: "We all had a lot of fun. I think we got a big letdown from Highland, because I didn't think we were quite ready. But we were ready after that; we learned something. I'm gonna miss it!"

Harriers Highly Improved

Ken Pierce, Steve Tetlow, Jerry Johnson, John Bascom, Tim Goss, and Dan Staudenmaier.

The cross-country team had the most outstanding year ever in Trojan history. The six runners worked hard and showed spirit and improvement.

It was a new experience for Troy when they held the first Troy Cross-Country Invitational Meet, Oct 5. The Trojan team was victorious over teams from Highland, Wathena, and Savior of the World in the meet at the Troy fair grounds. Despite heavy rains, the THS band and many Trojan fans were present to cheer the team on to a victory.

In the K-36 League Meet held in Horton, Oct. 19, Troy took second place, losing only to Centralia. Tim Goss led the Trojan runners by placing third. Jerry Johnson was next for the team, running in seventh place. John Bascom came in fifteenth, and Ken Pierce and Steve Tetlow finished eighteenth and nineteenth respectively. Dan Staudenmaier, the remaining Trojan runner, was unable to attend the meet.

One reason the Trojans had a strong season was because of summer long distance running. Tim Goss, John Bascom, and Steve Tetlow were all in honorary running clubs. In three years Tim and John ran 1,500 miles, and this last summer Steve ran 500 miles. This takes much diligence and stamina.

Superior Students Honored

National Honor Society is an organization designed to recognize the all around superior students. This society is based on the four principles of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. For membership a student must qualify by having a 3.0 (B) average. Leadership, school and community service, as well as the character of each student, were taken into consideration by faculty, who made the selection.

The following nine seniors were selected as the 1975 National Honor Society: Dan Staudenmaier, Connie McClelland, Martha Huss, Cynthia Masters, Melody Merritt, Patty Megown, Joyce Callahan, Cindy Murphy, Jeanette Aberle, Tim Goss, and Bob Wiedmaier. These members were initiated into the organization during a candle light service traditionally held during the Senior High Awards Program.

THS Honor Society of 1974-75 bought honor cords which they wore on their gowns at graduation.

StuCo Works For School Spirit

StuCo for THS was led by Pres. Tim Goss and staff. Student Council helped make THS a better place for the students and faculty by sponsoring school activities to stimulate school unity.

StuCo conducted elections for Homecoming, Queen of Courts, and Student Council, as is traditional. Maintaining the pop machine was the main money-making project.

StuCo sponsored "Spirit Week" during Homecoming Week which included "The 50's Day." Pre-game Homecoming ceremonies and the dance following the game were also organized by StuCo.

StuCo introduced pop break.

FFA Prepares Future Farmers

FFA's sponsor this year was Mr. Lloyd Barnett. Each second Monday night they met at 7 p. m. To be a member the first requirement was for the student to be enrolled in Vo. Ag. Some of the major activities held were the FFA Barnwarming on Nov. 15, the Local Public Speaking Contest on Dec. 9, the FFA Banquet on April 21, and a Citrus Fruit-Apple Fund Raising Project, held the last part of November. They attended the National Convention in Kansas City, Mo. on Oct. 16, and the State Convention in Manhattan, May 28-31. The District Contest was April 17, and State Judging Contests were April 27-29.

THS Fellowship Of Christian Athletes

Most of the FCA's activities this year were money-making projects to help send boys to Colorado this summer for a national conference. The boys sold filing boxes and also cut wood and sold it. In the spring they attended various churches and shared their Christian witness by taking part in the services. The huddle had its meetings on Tuesday nights. Sponsors again this year were Coaches Bill Foster and Tom Smith. David Elder was the huddle captain.

T-Club Has Banquet

T-Club is an organization for any person who has lettered in one of the four sports. Members sold Christmas trees and ran the concession stand at home track meets. Sponsors were Coaches Tom Smith and Ron Tuley.

The main purpose of the organization was to sponsor the Athletic Banquet, held Monday, May 12, in the school gymnasium. The evening began with a catered supper. Following the meal was a short talk by guest speaker, Mr. Charles Richards, the new head football and track coach at HCJC. His talk was followed by the presentation of awards earned by both the junior and senior high school athletes. Because of the many awards to be presented, the banquet lasted until 11 p.m.

Several special awards given included a plaque the cross-country team presented to Coach Bill Foster. Roger Drake was awarded the Tom Keller Award, and Tim Goss and David Elder received the Trojan Athletes of the Year plaques. Though the banquet was long, it was highlighted by a collection of jokes and recollections from the past athletic year.

Trojans Boost Teams

The Trojan Pep Club, with 33 members and 8 cheerleaders, had a spirited season under the direction of Miss Lila Schuman and Mrs. Helen Luedke. Selling Trojan pins during Homecoming week was the main money-making project. Profits from this project were then used to sponsor the Homecoming dance Oct. 11.

This year the Trojans changed their style by adding new outfits for basketball season, blue shorts under white slitted skirts. Members had to wear appropriate uniform to all games, and were only allowed six excused absences. At the end of the year each member who met all requirements was awarded a bar or a "T".

Squad Shows Skills

New Routines Added

The 1974-75 cheerleading squad was exceptionally good. They consisted of four A-team (Head Ginny Whitsell, Brenda Speaks, Denise Etherton, Gail Luek-ke) and four B-team (Head Patty Speaks, Martha Huss, Mary Huss, Mindy Larzelere) cheerleaders. The group cheered as a whole for the football season and as separate squads during A-team and B-team basketball games.

Library Course Added

Library Science was new to the curriculum this year. Students taking the mini course learned to file cards, write biographies, check out books for students, and replace returned books on shelves. The course earned students one-fourth credit, while each library aide earned a full credit for the year's work. Miss Janet Guier was the supervisor and instructor for the course.

Cadets Experience Teaching

A new mini course offered this year was Cadet Teaching. Cadet teachers were given their choice of special or elementary education. They helped regular teachers by grading papers, making bulletin boards, and helping the students with their assignments. Although a few complained of having to walk to the grade school, most enjoyed the cadet teaching experience, for which each received one-fourth credit.

Kayettes Work For Curtains

The Kayettes were busy this year collecting labels and selling candy bars to raise money for new stage curtains. They also had a chili supper, which made $185.

A first for the Troy Kayettes was having a Kayette candidate for Area President. Their candidate was Elaine Staudenmaier. Their campaign, complete with theme song, helped their candidate win the election.

The girls put on a program for Christmas, "A Trip Around the World at Christmas," in which each girl took part. Christmas customs from various countries were depicted.

It was not all work for the girls. They had parties, and a contest for Miss Blabbermouth and Mr. Irresistible. Elaine Staudenmaier and Randy Duncan were the winners.

The work the Kayettes did this year was excellent. It proved that this generation cares about others, as demonstrated in their participation in the CROP drive and in school service projects.

Musicians Perform At State

My compliments to Patty Neumann for her outstanding performance at contest. The combination of strict judging and nerves made Troy's showing less than anticipated. I can only say I was very proud of the students' efforts and especially of their behavior. My compliments to the students who tried. They should be proud they made the effort.

There's a Scrumptilyishus Difference!

The difference begins with the meat—our own special kind of plump and juicy Brazier wiener. Then we pop into a freshly steamed bun and season it with our own zesty Brazier sauce and mustard. Just be sure to say "Brazier Dog, please." Anything this good deserves to be called by its right name!
